Discussion was held concerning the Blue Book. A letter from James Stoddard and Roger Chapman concerning the bids for the Blue Book was read. Bids were received from Union Printing Co., Anstett Printing Co., and Miller and Sutherlen Printing Co. It was moved and seconded that the bid of Miller and Sutherlen for $125 be accepted. Carried.

Mr. Bond reported that some trouble over the boundary line at Normalstad had arisen. No action was taken on the matter, the Board will let Mr. Bond proceed as he sees fit.

A letter from Roger Chapman and Bob Waters concerning the salaries of the Editor and Business Manager of the Viking was read and laid on the table for some future meeting.

The headline "Thank God He Didn't Play Hamlet" which appeared in the Viking was commented on. Mr. Chapman was interviewed in regards to the matter. Several members of the Board were of the opinion that the remark was a slur on the company and did not represent the general consensus of opinion of the student body. It was not up to the standard of the article which was considered to be a well written, honest criticism. Its motive was a desire on the part of Editor Chapman to create a sensation and was not given the careful consideration it should have received. No action was taken, however, and it was decided to interview Mrs. Burnet as to her authorization of the headline and to bring the matter up for consideration at the next meeting.

It was decided that the money from the Victoria trip, the Shakespearean Players, and that donated by the Sophomore Class amounting to about $135 in all be used to construct the fireplace in the cabin out at Normalstad. It was moved and seconded that Frank E. Headrick be instructed to go ahead with the construction of the proposed fireplace. Motion Carried.

Motion made and seconded that the Board adjourn. Carried.

Mr. Chapman and Mr. Stoddard, co-editors of the Blue Book, were interviewed. They presented a new style of cover which Miller and Sutherlen agreed to put on for $5 more than the original bid. A motion was made, seconded, and carried, that the new bid of $130, which included putting on the new cover, be accepted.

Several changes in the Blue Book were discussed with the Editors before they were dismissed.

Plans submitted by Mrs. Burnet, Editor Chapman, and Bob Waters, concerning the organization of the Viking and the salaries and requirements of the Editor and Business Manager were discussed. The general trend of a long, heated discussion centered around the immaturity of the past editors and the need for older and deeper thinking students to run the paper.
