With the Sports Ed

Well, it looks as if that time of the vicious cycle has rolled around again when all good little German, English, Italian, and other kiddies start slaughtering each other under the capable direction of their respective elder commandants. According to the most recent British and German news dispatches, all little American lads are unofficially involved to complete the cycle. The last tete-a-tete of 1918 was "TO SAFE-GUARD DEMOCRACY." The fates, to date, have not fed the American readers a new slogan to get all hepped up about. Could it be that they have lost faith in the old one?

Marian Anderson, heard here in concert March 10, has again won the acclamation of the whole country. She has turned over her $10,000 Bok award to help "some poor unfortunate, but nevertheless unfortunate people to do something of which they dreamed all their lives."

Believe it or not! Western Washington college has a band. See you—anyway a few of you—at the next band concert.

Initial signs of spring burst forth Sunday when the first official use of Lakewood, WWC's hide-out at Lake Whatcom, was made when a few of the more ambitious students broke ice at the joint with a picnic. The water was fine (to look at) but wait till I get out of my pneumonia jacket long enough to bust the little squirt who suggested that a swim be had by all.

Print Shop Gives Annual Dinner

Faithful work will be rewarded with a dinner for Klipsun staff members, Thursday, April 3, by the Union Printing company in accordance with the annual custom observed by C. S. Beard. Those chosen to attend the dinner are: Irene Fyhn, staff writer; Audrene Feldt, art editor; Maxine Balch, women's sports editor; Dorothy Hubert, assistant art editor; Barbara Beyer, picture editor; Melba Mayhew, business manager; Shirlee Cratsen-berg, editor; and Mrs. Ruth A. Burnett, adviser.

The selection of the eight members is done on the following basis: past work done, those specially connected with the process of printing, and those upon whom the main responsibility of the book falls.

More proof is being pasted in the dummy book as it comes back from the printer.

The following men are asked to report to the Klipsun office to set a time for their football pictures: Norman Nelson, Sylvester Edquist, Dick Dombroski, and Russ Davis.

SHORT QUESTIONNAIRES RETURNED TO SCHOOL

Sometime ago a short questionnaire was sent to 120 teachers' colleges distributed over the United States to determine the kind and amount of research done by colleges.

Dr. C. C. Upshall, director of the WWC Research bureau, received a summary of the answers to this questionnaire last week.

The general analysis showed that the teachers colleges do not spend much time, effort, or money on research. It also showed that the presidents of the institutions do not seem to stress this as a function of the teachers college.

Muscle Men's Sport Dance April 11

"April 11 is the date set for the annual W club sports dance," announces Co-Chairmen Alick Mitchell and Kenneth McAulay.

Transportation is to be made available by the W club for people not having rides. Plans are also underway for a publicity system that will place advertisements all over the school and campus.

Music will be furnished by Chuck Sudduth and his orchestra with dancing from 9 to 12. Sports clothes are in order.

RAINBOW QUEEN ELECTED FOR ANNUAL CARNIVAL

"Virginia Gilfilen was selected as queen to rule over this year's carnival," announced Ozella True, worthy adviser of the Bellingham assembly of Rainbow girls, speaking of the 1941 annual Rainbow carnival held in the Masonic temple last Saturday evening.

The queen was crowned by Neill Davy, representative of the Bellingham DeMolay and former WWC student. Completing the royal court were the princesses: Jacqueline Horn, Jean Ryeckman, Virginia Emerson, and Irene Eiford.

After the program there were many amusements, such as the Penny-pitch, bingo, fortune telling, and nickle-a-dance.

COLLEGE CATALOGS READY FOR STUDENT USE

College catalogs from every state in the United States and from several foreign countries are now available for the use of students in the Library.

Miss Lillian George, cataloger, has just completed organization of these bulletins. They are placed in a basement room where they are arranged by state and country. Besides an almost complete list of other teachers' colleges, many universities and other colleges are included. A list of these catalogs is filed in a tray in the back of the card catalog under the title, "College Catalogs."

Kuder Announces 1941 Conference

Plans for the 1941 spring conference to be held in southwestern Washington are underway, according to Dr. Merle S. Kuder, registrar. Each year this series of conferences takes place between the college representatives and high school seniors to aid the students in making their choice of colleges.

Through the work of a special committee, of which Dr. Kuder is chairman, a plan has been devised whereby speakers from all northwestern colleges will address the various high school seniors several weeks prior to the conference.

The southwestern area will be divided into six sections. Dr. Kuder will address the high school seniors of Montesano, Aberdeen, Hoquiam, and Moclips next Monday and Tuesday.

He expects to visit Stadium and Lincoln high schools of Tacoma, and West Seattle, Broadway, Cleveland, and Roosevelt high schools of Seattle Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday to confer with any graduating seniors contemplating attendance at Western Washington college.

Belgian String Quartet Better At Music Than English Conversation

Four pairs of quizzical eyes were fixed questioningly on Nils Boson as he tried to converse with the members of the Belgian String quartet in his office Monday. The air was filled with explosive "Eh's," "Non's," and "How you says's" as the dynamic Belgians tried to understand and be understood. The Messieurs Mombaerts, Rahier, Wetzels, and Fiodart, with all the native politeness of their race, chattered and bowed in reply to the questions put to them.

During the 14 years of its existence, the quartet has made two tours of the United States. Their appearance in Bellingham concluded the coverage of the West coast; their next performance will be in Utah. "We 'ave come first from Brussels . . . zen Spain we go" explained M. Mombaerts, the pianist, clarifying his statement with expressive use of his hands. "Janvier

Two Teacher Aid Bills Hang Fire

Two bills designed to aid teachers in the state of Washington were passed before the adjournment of the state legislature recently. They have not, as yet, been signed by the governor.

A bill authorizing any first-class school district to set up a separate retirement system passed the legislature but has not yet been acted on by the governor. Another measure, requiring that teachers be notified by April 15 if they are not to be rehired, has the same status.

The measure placing teachers under a civil service system and prohibiting their dismissal except on grounds of physical or mental disability, immorality, or gross inefficiency failed to get on the senate calendar.

AWS Spring Dance Set For April 26

"Committees have been appointed for the Spring AWS informal and tonight will hold their first general meeting to get plans underway," said Ruth Krause general chairman.

The committees are as follows: publicity, Marilyn Manuel, chairman, Elaine Sundback, Lillian Dean, Deed Trickey, and Jane Hamilton; orchestra, Elizabeth Douglas, chairman, Mary Pirrung and Rae Burke; decorations, Doris Stevenson, chairman, Irene German, Marjean Bowers, Betty Groger, Ronnie Swalling, and Helen Jorgenson.

Programs, Lauretta Scheldt, chairman, Alice Severson, Ruth Culbertson, Margaret Lewis, Anita White, Mary Joan Moore, and Barbara Olson; refreshments, Virginia Tripp, chairman, Ann Bloomfield, Ruth Mitchell, and Pat Burke; and invitations, Jean Pratt, chairman, Evelyn Pearson, Laura Spencer, and Ruby Stroebel.

The dance will be held April 26. This is the first AWS dance to be held this year.

Play Is Problem Comedy of Family Life; Problem Is Maiden Aunt, Lottie Powers

During the opening week of the spring quarter, the Theater Guild will present "The Guest Room," by Arthur Wilmurt, under the direction of Lenore Wallace. As usual, student rates will be in force for the Wednesday and Thursday performances, April 2 and 3.

"The Guest Room" is a problem comedy of family life. The "problem" is a maiden aunt, Lottie Powers. A New York dramatic reviewer describes her thus: "Oh, she was good, that maiden aunt. She was so loving and devoted and so anxious to help, that she buried two of her relatives, drove her best friend into nervous spasms, and her niece's husband to South America—while the audience roared."

The leading role is to be played by Ellen Quam, whose versatility is indicated by the fact that she appeared in 1938 as Beth in the Guild production of "Little Women." The other members of the cast will make their debuts in a Guild major production. Barbara Boothe and James Leake are paired as Janet and Bill Sims, the young couple whose happiness is threatened by Aunt Lottie. George and Jane Wurgler of Everson and Mabel M. Williams of Bellingham will take smaller parts.

Love to Ride, But Sorry, No Ferry

Complications have arisen in the plans of the proposed week-end trip to Victoria, April 5 and 6. It was discovered that the Victoria ferry will not be on its regular run until May 1 and unless the group decides to go through Vancouver, B. C., the trip will be postponed.

All those who plan to go should get birth certificates or some other document of identification during the spring vacation.

The cost of the two-day trip is $5.50 which includes all the traveling expenses.

GRIM BACK MONDAY; LEADS DISCUSSION

Dr. Paul R. Grim returned Monday from the Yakima Valley Educators' Study conference held last week-end in the Yakima high school. The theme of the conference was "Education and the National Defense." Dr. Grim led a discussion group on the subject "Education Must Help Us Understand America and the People of America."

A panel discussion attended by the group leaders followed the various discussions.

SPECIAL SENIOR EDITION TO BE PUBLISHED

In order to acquaint prospective students with the advantages offered them at WWC approximately 7,000 copies of the WWC Collegian are to be distributed to all high school seniors in the state April 11.

This special senior edition will consist of a large and varied amount of material and numerous illustrations. H. C. Ruckmick of the Industrial Arts department is taking the pictures.

It's A Long Road . . . . .

These are the youth of forty-one
They wanted no war
Bloody war.
They got one
These are the youth of forty-one

They marched to battle, colors flying
We don't hate anybody
Why do we fight?
But they fought
And marched to battle, colors flying

Senators spoke such high sounding phrases
Democracy, Americanism, lend-lease
Bundles for Britain, for Greece
Little shapeless bundles
Senators spoke such high sounding phrases

Oh, where are the youth of forty-one?
Dead from shrapnel, stuka, shell
Dead from disease and smell
But good and dead
They are the youth of forty-one.

Discing It Out

By Ed Prince

Best solo of the week—"Corky" Cornelius' outstanding rendition of "Georgia on my Mind" with the Casa Loma outfit. Localite tooter, Bob Brown, gave a few of the fans a thrill last Monday night at the Armory with his powerhouse horn.

"Corky" Corkrin, a Tacoma tenor sax man of the first water, has taken over go tenor position with Sunny Dunham's new band. Corky is only 19 years old and this only goes to prove that there is a general trend to younger musicians in the swing world. They have more FIRE!

Wiser Kyser's on Way—O-Kay

Genial Kay is on his way! Next Monday will bring the smilin' maestro of screen and radio to the Bellingham Armory for a one night stand of lots of entertainment. All outstanding personalities of the Kyser crew will be on hand to give you loads of that "makes you want to dance" music. This is one of the outstanding popular musical treats that we have been offered this year and since Kyser doesn't come to town every day, we'll see you there.

TO THE STUDES

Is Edens hall promoting a major catastrophe by letting BARBARA OLSON go out with DON BELL? Someone had better be AL-Lert.

Talk about paying for a slight mistake, those boys who danced with other girls than those they took to the Twin Gables the other night—and then had to walk home because of it. . . . DONNA even took the car.

Even the mechanism of the great system of broadcasting in our country must await the arrival of the commentator of the 7:30 war news, JIM GOODRICH, when he arrives at 7:35.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

IF BETTY GROGER goes home each week-end for a special reason and this special reason is soon to leave for Alaska does that account for BILL JUNKIN'S walking home from the Library with her?

AN IDEA OR TWO

We've tired of tearing people down so now we're going to try matchmaking.

Don't you think BILL JENSEN and MURIEL ANDERSON make a striking-looking couple on the dance floor? They also have many other similar characteristics that go toward harmony. Cute couple eh?

Ullin, Hicks Attend Conference at U

Miss Anna Ullin and Dr. A. C. Hicks attended the Research conference held by the departments of English and Romanic languages last week-end at the University of Washington.

The first discussions were held Friday at 2 o'clock, followed by a tea at 4:30. Friday evening, H. Carrington, professor of French literature and language at John Hopkins university and a well-known authority on French literature, gave the principal address. The session closed after the luncheon, Saturday.

The conference is an annual affair; last year 60 were present. The meet was delayed this year to coincide with Prof. Lancaster's presence in Washington.

We heard a little poem(?) the other day that certainly fits into the picture at WWC:

"Here lies the body of a poor wall-flower,
She died in the stagline at the last "Rec" hour

Divot Diggers Whip Into Old Form

Fore! Spring is really here. Those mighty men of the fairways, commonly known as divot diggers or better still, golfers, are being whipped into shape by Coach Sam Carver these days for their first engagement, April 15, with the crack University of Washington frosh outfit.

Although only eight men have signed to play, as many as want to may turn out for the team and Carver declared that anyone who wants to try out may do so. However, only the top five men make up the squad. These top five acquire their positions through challenge matches, a system whereby the players may challenge each other, thus giving the lowest man on the list a chance to climb to the top and earn a berth on the team.

Of the eight prospects who have signed so far, a few new faces are present. Along with last year's veterans, Webster and Smith, three former Bellingham high stars, Bob Rogers, Everett McGhee, and Joe Carter; Bud Shepard, Mount Vernon boy; Fitch, linksman from Everett, and Hardy are all rarin' to go. All the new turf rippers, except Hardy, are freshmen.

As yet the team has not been picked but the starting five will be seeded through a series of challenge matches. The first of these is as follows:

- Webster vs. Smith.
- Rogers vs. McGhee.
- Fitch vs. Hardy
- Shepard vs. Carter.

KUDER ATTENDS MEET AT UNIVERSITY

Discussing the principles involved in student personnel courses with the University of Washington officials, Dr. Merle S. Kuder, registrar, attended a conference at the university last Wednesday.

QUALICUM, B. C., SCENE OF HAZEN MEET

That the 1941 Conference on Student Guidance and Counsel, conducted annually by the Edward H. Hazen foundation, will be held at Qualicum beach, on the eastern shore of Vancouver island, British Columbia, from August 2 to August 9, was reported by Dr. Merle S. Kuder, registrar.

To this conference are invited student personnel workers in colleges and universities from various sections of the country. Dr. C. C. Upshall represented Western Washington college at the 1939 conference at Big Four inn. Seventy-five workers attended last year's conference at Asilomar, Calif.

Dr. Kuder, a member of the committee making general preparations for this year's conference, expects to attend.

By Al Biggs

For you-all that have been laboring under the delusion that spring is here, a condition no doubt fostered by the balmy breezes and sunshine galore, we have a sad awakening in store. As long as basketball still reigns, old King Winter is lurking nearby. Until them sassy Cougars get through at Kansas City, the Savidges leave Denver, and the 16 state high school teams finish eliminating each other in Seattle, we advise wearing those long red flannels. Only then can the golfers golf, tennisers tennis, and picnickers, well . . .

Joe Ruffino's pals, the Oakville high Bearcats, made the State tournament again and the ambassador from Oakville will give you 60-50 odds they win it. . . Jeff Tesreau, former Viking divot mainstay, is still dingling in those putts. Jeff copped another tournament down in Grays Harbor county. . . They're calling Peter Gudyka, Lemmy now. Pete will explain. . . Kinda think Uncle Wayne Weber will be missed this spring. Webby didn't drop a point in the broad jump last year. . . Grapevine has it that Vic Carpine, the winged lightning bolt from Cheney, won't be scampering this year. . . Cuddle Miner, former Collegian sports editor now in San Diego, writes that the Californians are thinking of calling the G-men to investigate the state of Washington. They think we sabotaged them with some Grays Harbor sunshine. . . Latest addition to the "I Hate Bowling" club are the Edwards hall keglers. After dominating the league in the first half, the I boys are deep in the doldrums. . . Add question. Has Wayne Ensign spent all winter cornering the market on softball talent or is this going to be honest competition?

Track and we don't mean skiing. We've got a new one and it's a honey. The cinders are down and the track will be ready for the first meet on the 15th of April. But what causes those lines in Sam Carver's brow ain't the track, to put it bluntly. We could paraphrase Robert Louis Stevenson and explain what happened to the thinclads by saying "drink and the devil done for the rest," but Uncle Sam's army and graduation took a healthy cut at the spiked shoe tribe. Returning for the sprints is nobody, a whiz in the open field but a bust on the track, Norm Dahl handles the half and maybe, the mile, Mitch and Johnny (Abe) Thommasen, the shot, Mouse McAulay and Windsheimer the pole vault. That's about the essence of it and the smell isn't like a bed of roses. But they got to beat us to lick us, you can't shoot a guy for trying and genial Sam will probably come up with something. Among prospects are Cabbage Campbell in the mile and two-mile, Bobby McGrath in the broad jump, and Annis Hovde in the high jump.

Don't say we didn't tell you and that's what we're afraid of. Mom always said we talked too much. . .

WEAKLY SUGGESTION

Will the only fan please note the essence of this little idea and act upon it?

Overheard while acting as slave to a small, white spheroid, the following conversation caused the pert ear to perk up.

No. 1 golfer: What are you shooting, nine? They ought to have IN-TRAMURAL GOLFING. ?!%½¼& that hook.

No. 2 golfer: It landed in the pond. Sure if they gave big handicaps there are a lot of dubs that could have some fun. Now shut up, I'm going to shoot.

No. 1 windmill: Please pass the peanut brittle.

No. 2 golfer: Where did my ball go?

No. 1 ditto: About 10 feet in front of you.

No. 2 sucker: Completely censored.

ADD ON THE SPORT

Joe Carter has evolved the most satisfactory ground rules for the Lakeway course of anyone we know. They are, in brief: Any strokes over 10 on a hole don't count; a ball in the ditch that has been there for 10 years comes under the head of fairway improvements, no penalty for removing; ball in the drink, too bad, try again; many more to fit the situation. It's a pleasure suh, a pleasure.

RUMBLERS

Iron man of the collich bowling league is Dale Fredericks. While he is only in fourth place, he has rolled some 34 games for an average of 148. Bowlers have had higher averages for a few games, but anyone who can ride through the invariable slumps and still come up with such a good rating deserves something or another. . . Don Brown rides in first place with just a few less played games to his credit. Don is one of those high-strung players who, when he is on, is almost unbeatable and when he isn't, he couldn't hit a bottle. He has the habit of jerking his thumb out of the hole in the ball just as he gets set. For luck perhaps.

Several Ball Teams Already Signed

Softball, golf, and swimming will be the three intramural sports spring quarter announced Sam Carver, PE instructor. Softball is about the only sport that has been given much attention so far. Teams have been organized by Edwards hall, Sweepers, Daniels hall, and the ever-hopeful Collegians.

Because of the construction of the football field and the fact that track will be held in the afternoon, playing space for softball seems to be a big problem. The intramural program will be later than usual in getting started.

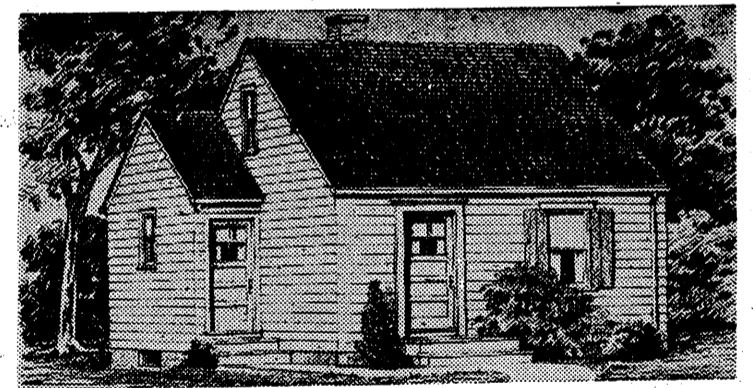

Golf will be conducted at the Lakeway golf course. Students are offered a special rate of 25 cents. This will probably be lowered to 10 cents a game beginning next quarter.
