—Cut Courtesy Bellingham Herald

County American Legion Posts Present New Flag to College

Seven American Legion Posts of the county had representatives at the presentation of a new flag to WWC at an assembly here December 14.

Robert Moles, a past commander of Ferndale's American Legion post, represented all Legionaires of the county in presenting the flag. Dr. W. W. Haggard accepted the flag and thanked the Legion in behalf of himself and the college.

Present from the Albert J. Hamilton Post No. 7 in Bellingham were Colonel Robert Bowler, adjutant; Ray Clark, Chairman for Americanism; and Mrs. Stan Golday, representative of the Auxiliary. From Mt. Baker, No. 121 in Lynden, were the First Vice-Commander, John Snapper, and Mr. Irwin LeCocq, Chairman for Americanism. Representing the Kulshan Post No. 154 in Ferndale were Robert Moles, Commander Frank Dion and Mrs. Frank Dion as representative. From the John H. Kittles, No. 196 in Marietta, were Forrest L. Kinley and Mrs. Florence Kinley. Mrs. Veda Flockoi

Christmas Concert Given by Choir

Filling the auditorium with Christmas music, the choral division of the music department performed for an audience of students, faculty, and townspeople December 14 at 8:00 p. m.

The seasonal program was opened by the a cappella choir followed by a tenor solo and two organ numbers. The Voccollegians sang accompanied by the modern dance group. The audience participated in the singing of three Christmas carols, a new feature this year. The College quartet preceded a soprano solo.

Climaxing the evening's entertainment, the groups massed into a finale number "The Song of Christmas."

represented the Whatcom No. 198 in Bellingham. Herbert Johnson and Viola DeVisscher were there from the Mt. Shuksan Post, No. 224, Deming. From the Sumas Memorial, No. 224, Deming, were J. J. Harris and Albert Piro.

The new silk 8-feet by 5-feet American flag will replace the present 3-feet by 5-feet flag.

Exchange Assembly Is Now Reality

Charles Odell, chairman of the Evergreen Student's association, has announced that the first draft of the constitution for the new organization is now completed. The organization is designed to coordinate exchange assemblies among the schools of the Evergreen conference.

Schools included in the association are: Pacific Lutheran College, Eastern Washington College, Whitworth College, Central Washington College, St. Martin's College and Western Washington College.

Each school included in the group will visit one other school on a date set by the association. Chairman for Western's assembly is Larry Wilson.

Odell stated that scheduling for the exchanges will be made on January 23.

Constitution Change Planned by Spring

Complete revision of the constitution of the Associated Students is in progress this quarter. This project is to be completed by the end of winter quarter.

Dr. Herbert Taylor is adviser for the committee. Virginia Willemson is chairman of the committee. Other members of the committee are: Keith Stearns, Nancy Brown, Dick McClure, Bonnie Pasley, Neva Johnson and Ralph Bennett.

The first seven articles of the constitution have been revised so far.

Moratorium Raised On Spring Sports, Conference Admits BC

Spring sports have returned to the Evergreen conference. After one year of "vacation" the two minor sports, tennis and golf, will again be official league sports, as well as the major sport that was dropped, baseball.

Plans for the conference track, golf and tennis meets were completed with the University of British Columbia as the host school. The dates of the meet were set as Friday and Saturday, May 23 and 24.

Along with the setting of UBC as the site for the conference meet, the Thunderbirds were taken in as a conference member, and will be now listed in the official standings in all sports.

Along with the other dates that were listed is the swimming meet which will be March 8 in the UBC pool. Swimming was not listed as an official conference sport, but it is noted that all of the members that have available facilities would participate in the conference meet.

Track meets will be run a little differently this year, with each school playing host to the rest of the league at one meet. Western will hold their "host to all" track show on May 17. This system was thought up by Leo Nicholson of Central. It is one way the schools can cut down on expenses and still give their men interested in track and field a chance to participate.

To take the place of the St. Martin's relays this year, Central said they would have the carnival and all of the Evergreen track teams were invited to participate.

Western's football schedule for next year was drawn up, and the six conference games are listed below. A non-conference game with Pacific University on September 20 is in the making, but the final OK has not been stamped on it. Other games will be scheduled later.

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

Sept. 27—CPS at Bellingham
Oct. 4—PLC at Tacoma
Oct. 11—UBC at Bellingham
Oct. 18—Whitworth at Spokane
Oct. 25—Central at Bellingham
Nov. 1—Eastern at Bellingham (Homecoming)

The all-conference choices for football were also made, and they appear on the sports page.

Band, Choir, Strings Presents Concert Of Christmas Music

"The Christmas March" opened the Christmas program presented by the music department last Tuesday morning. "Valse Caprice" featured a saxophone solo by Margaret Olson, accompanied by the band.

"Overture to the Messiah" was presented by the string ensemble. "Trumpeter's Lullaby" featured Bob Brown as trumpet soloist, accompanied by the string ensemble.

"Song of Christmas," arranged by Ringwald, was presented by the choir and soloists in this were Jean Rogers, Joyce Peterson, Robert Young, Gail Dillon and Robert Todd. Bennett Asplund, Alfred Lund, and Kenneth Linder composed the trio, which was also featured.

Wilbur Sheridan was the organist and Carla Christensen was the pianist for "Song of Christmas."

Higgins Presents Foreboding Picture Of Korean 'Cold War' Situation

By AUDRY DAHL

"Time is on Russia's side," said Miss Maggie Higgins, noted foreign correspondent recently back from Korea, who talked on the Korean situation at the Friday morning assembly, December 14.

Charming, vivacious Miss Higgins related her experiences in the Inchon landing and also presented a foreboding picture of the "cold war." She also told of instances at the front where the "economizing" policy of the United States has disastrous and heart-breaking results.

Recently, Miss Higgins was chosen "Woman of the Year" for 1951 by the American newspaperwomen. The only newspaperwoman on the Korean battle-front, Maggie won international attention when ordered to the rear for safety, she stood her ground with the announcement, "I'm here as a reporter, not as a woman."

It is interesting to note that in the poll of women's editors of Associated Press newspapers, runner-up for the title of outstanding woman of the year was Princess Elizabeth, whose recent American tour made miles of headlines.

Registrar's Notes

Winter quarter registration will begin at 8 a. m. Monday, January 7, according to registrar Donald Ferris.

Procedure will be as follows:
1. Pick up approved pre-registration schedule at designated time.
2. Check in room 108, to report changes; then report to Business office to pay fees and receive registration booklet. (Veterans report to room 112.)
3. Fill out class cards and registration booklet, then report to the library.

Fall quarter Board of Control members pause in the middle of a busy meeting to pose for the WWColegian camera. From left to right are Miss Margaret Muffly, Dr. Moyle Cederstrom, Paul Gillie, Virginia Willemsen, Phil Ager, Charles Odell, ASB president Dick

Past Services Rendered by Board Members Recalled

By JANET BIEGHLE and LORETTA OLSEN

Would you like to know who has been serving you and will serve you on the board of control? Following are the past members of the board and the work they have accomplished, and their replacements:

First there is Bev Dustin, retiring four quarter woman. Bev is vice president of Valkyrie, treasurer of Edens hall and has participated on an exchange assembly committee. She states, "I think students should be made more aware of what the board is trying to do. Many students feel the board is against instead of for them. Anyone can attend board meetings and more people should do so." Bev is being replaced by Nan Mercier, sophomore president, a member of Valkyrie and an ICC representative. Nan, who is also on the AWS commission, says that she would "like to help out" and make the board more active.

Retiring one quarter woman is Virginia Willemsen, who is chairman of the constitution committee. Virginia replaced Lois French. She is active in the work with AWS. Taking Virginia's place on the board will be Janice Gentry. Janice is a member of Valkyrie, was chairman for one of their mixers, and co-chairman of one of the AWS sponsored high school leaders conference.

Carol Irwin, Charles Odell, and Phil Ager are the three retiring four quarter people from the board. Carol Irwin has served seven consecutive quarters on the board. She worked on the exchange assembly last spring and the election rules committee last year. Carol has been on the budget committee for two years, on the summer recreation committee, and has worked with Charles Odell on the Lakewood improvement plan. Another past four quarter member is Phil Ager, senior class president. He was in charge of skits for the exchange assembly and was on the lounge committee last spring. Last of the retiring four quarter people is Charles "Digger" Odell. Charles has served a four quarter term, and has acted as president pro tem during the summer quarter. He introduced the Lakewood improvements, gained recognition for the swimming team, and introduced plans for a student union building. He served on several other committees and designed the emblems for the minor awards.

Replacing these three are Merv Sliger, Marv Nilsen and Milt Clothier. Merv is a prominent member of the music department, being a member of the choir, male quartet, band and orchestra and president of the Arion club. Marv Nilsen is on the Norsemen's commission, was president of his freshman class, is a member of the Fat Boys and was chairman of the sophomore float committee for Homecoming.

Milt Clothier, also new four quarter man, is president of the junior class. He is a member of the Thespian club, is on the swimming team, a member of Kappa Delta Pi. He wants to thank his supporters in the past election and hopes his term in office will not disappoint them.

John Franklin is the last retiring member of the board. John served as one quarter man or woman, and was on the Homecoming display prize committee. He feels that being a part of the student government is a very worthwhile experience. Replacing John is Charles "Bud" Scott, who is vice president of SCC, a member of Kappa Delta Pi, and on the senior planning board. Bud is also well known for his participation in basketball and baseball.

Regier Directs Everett Chorus

Bernard Regier, director of choral activities at Western, served as guest director for the presentation of Handel's "Messiah" by the Everett Community Chorus and Civic Symphony on Sunday, December 9. The performance was given in the Civic Auditorium in Everett. The Everett Community Chorus consists of combined church, civic, and school choirs, totaling approximately 175 singers.

Glenn Bergh, graduate of Western, sang the tenor solo roles. Other soloists are from the Everett area. Richard Dale and Francis Cox, Western students also participated as members of the chorus.

Slightly under 40 per cent of you elected six new members to the Board of Control. We hope that you are satisfied with those elected. We are. For those of you that didn't vote we have this word: if you don't like some of the Board's decisions and beef about them, we hope that someone shoves those beefs right down your throats.

After 13 weeks of some successful and some not-so-successful entertainment students and faculty members will have two weeks to sit back and think of Western's acoustically perfect auditorium.

The WWColegian has to offer but one recommendation to improve the listening quality of the auditorium. This is that the administration establish a nursery of some type where children could be kept during assembly programs.

Kangley Sees Bellinghamites

Former Bellingham residents seen by Dr. Lucy Kangley at the National Council of Teachers of English in Cincinnati were Miss Fan Ragland, Miss Ruth G. Strickland, Miss Naomi Chase, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Fowler.

Miss Ragland, who was supervisor of students in the campus school, is now supervisor of Cincinnati schools. She was in charge of arrangements for dinners and luncheons for the conference.

Miss Strickland, formerly of the WWC staff, presided at a Thursday morning general session of the council.

Miss Chase, a former student of WWC, is teaching and working for her doctorate at the University of Minnesota.

Miss Fowler, also a former student, is teaching English in New Britain, Connecticut.

Collegians Interview Maggie Higgins

By JOYCE HUTCHISON and LOLLI HAGEN

Strain of the past months in Korea showing on her face, Marguerite Higgins met with members of the Collegian staff, before her lunch last Friday.

Tucking her feet beneath her, Maggie leaned back and waited with resignation for the barrage of questions. "Some of the men resented me at first," stated the tall, blond girl, "but they got used to seeing me around." "In fact I became an institution."

With reluctance, Maggie told about censorship in Korea. The correspondents try to get out the facts to the public but they are under great physical strain. There was no censorship during the first six months of the war but after orders from Washington censorship was imposed. "Censors are scared of death of losing their jobs and the reporters must fight for the news they want sent out," Miss Higgins said.

Speaking of the Korean people, she said they are of a simple, peasant nature and their chief interest is in farming. Their houses are made of wood and clay with only the

Western Leads in WEA Members

Maintaining high professional standards, Western Washington leads the institutions of higher learning in the state in percentage of membership in the Washington Education Association.

Membership in the state colleges and universities totals 269 according to the September issue of the Washington Education Journal. Western's membership totals 75. Eastern Washington College of Education follows with an enrollment of 54.

'Twas the day after Christmas
When all through my tummy
The intestines were wrestling
With all of the yummy.
The little intestine said to the big
I wish our host weren't such a pig.
The heart was squeezed in a tiny space
The lungs felt like they were being embraced.
The appendix said to the over-

All of this certainly makes me
quiver,
And said the liver with a smile,
Egad, I'm almost out of bile!
And the pancreas said unto the spleen
This must be a horrible, horrible dream.
Then at the peak of all this tur-

Down slithered some nasty cas-

WSC Invites Students to Booster Dance

Western Washington College of Education students are being welcomed to join with their friends of Washington State college in a Cougar Booster dance which is to be held from 9 p. m. to 1 a. m., Friday, Dec. 28. The place, say sponsors, is the Spanish Castle on Highway 99, midway between Seattle and Tacoma.

The invitation to their Western Washington friends is extended by the two WSC sponsoring organizations. These are Sigma Delta Chi, undergraduate chapter of the national journalism fraternity, whose president is Dick Gunderson, Everett; and Crimson Circle, whose president is Jack Biersdorf, Veradale. The latter organization is the senior men's service honorary at the State college.

"We were given adequate food while at the front in the form of C and K rations," Maggie stated. But her lack of interest in food was implied by her thinness and by the lunch of boiled eggs and grapefruit which the reporters left her eating.

Quirks in the News

The Los Angeles Collegian at L. A. City College recently interviewed stripteaser Tempest Storm:

Q: Do you find a difference in the reaction of college men to your act than the older generation?

A: Even though the majority of the audience is made up of older men, the college boys certainly go for the girls more than the older type.

Q: Do you believe that college kids should go steady?

A: I most definitely do.

Q: Do you believe a girl should let a fellow kiss her on the first date?

A: Well, it certainly depends on the guy. Yes—if the girl likes him.

Normal Drive Mathes Fight

League play in the intramural basketball league came to a close last week resulting in a two-way tie for first place in the "B" league and an upset in the finals.

Mathes and the Fat Boys tied for the top spot in the "B" league, each having 12 wins and 3 losses. In the sudden death final, Mathes defeated Fat Boys 28-25 in a closely fought contest.

Mathes continued its winning ways by upsetting Normal Drive 35-27 in the first game of a best-of-three finals for the championship.

Standings of all teams in the fall quarter basketball league are as follows:

Western Opens Evergreen Play

Western Washington Vikings open their 1951-52 Evergreen Conference basketball schedule January 4 against the Central Washington Wildcats and January 5 against College of Puget Sound Loggers, at Western's hill-top gym.

Central Wildcats, coached by Leo Nicholson and Arnold Faust, had an 8-18 record last year, splitting a pair of games with Western. Three lettermen are returning this year; Billy Lee, Zebb Wedekind, and Gene Keller. The Wildcats will have plenty of skyscraper material this year with the starting lineup averaging 6 feet one. Hal Jones, conference scoring leader last year, will not be back this year.

College of Puget Sound Loggers are coached by John Heinrich, who has three lettermen returning this year; with Jack Mayberry their outstanding player.

"Central and CPS are on the same level as the other teams of the Conference with the exception of Whitworth," stated Coach McDonald, "and the Pirates should have the top team this year in the league."

Modern Dance Club Here Winter Term

Due to increasing interest in modern dance, a modern dance club will begin a series of meetings during winter quarter. Such a group will be open to all college men and women interested in modern dance, and will meet one evening a week. From this group some numbers will be selected for future modern dance productions.

All students who have taken previous work in modern dance are especially welcome, but no person need hesitate because of lack of experience in this field. None of the performers in the Christmas program had done modern dance before.

For further information, contact Miss Pat Hieber of the Women's Physical Education department.

All-Conference Team Named; Hash Fullback

Norm Hash was the only Westernite to make the first team all-conference. The teams were chosen by the coaches and athletic directors of the conference schools. They dropped the idea of using two squads, so only a first and second team were chosen for the honor.

On the second team Roy Richardson and Al Cornett made it at guard and end respectively.

Four Western men were chosen as honorable mentions. One back, Eldon Odie, Pete Muir at an end spot, and Al Compton and Dick Pangallo at the guard and tackle spots.

On the first two teams there were seven men from College of Puget Sound, four from Pacific Lutheran, and the three from Western. These three teams tied for the league bunting with four wins and loss each.

Whitworth and Central each placed three men on the first two squads, and the Eastern Savages placed two men. The last three colleges tied for the league cellar with one win and four losses each.

Mural Playoffs

First Game: Mathes 28, Normal Drive 25.

Second game: Mathes 19, Normal Drive 32.

Third game: Mathes, Normal Drive.

Searching Sports...

By MORT GRONSETH

The complete sports staff of the Collegian would like to wish a very Merry Christmas to you readers. We have tried to bring you the sports news of the college, and will continue to do that in the new year. So go home and have a good time this vacation, and the best of the vacation from Gene Caraker, Don Kerr and Mort Gronseth.

P.S.—May Santa be good to all of the coaches next year, and put some more wins in all of your stockings.

The list of the coaches' all-conference team is out, and all I can say to the coaches of the conference is thanks for your generous mind in putting one man from Western on the first string.

It comes to pass that you have to play in the conference for three or four years before you have a chance for all-conference. This presents a problem, as it seems that if you are lucky enough to make it in an earlier year you are a cinch for it later. It is evident in some of the choices that these boys didn't play that good ball this year, but did in the past.

One other thing is that Western had a team, not a group of individuals trying to glorify themselves, and consequently they didn't get any individual recognition. Our team record stands by itself; no other team in the conference can match the 8 wins and a single loss.

After all of that about the conference we come to another problem—Royal Brougham. This is a tough one, as the newspapers of a metropolitan area such as Seattle can go far in helping a person, or a team to national success.

Mr. Brougham indicated last week that there wasn't room in the paper for the areas outside the town of Seattle. It could be that the national stories could be cut a little, not taken out, but just cut to get some local interest stories in the paper.

It might also be noted by the man with the stinging pen that there are other good teams in the state beside the U. Seems to me that one beat the U around November 24.

Christmas time and many of the boys are getting home who are in the service, for furloughs. Some of the ex-Viks who have been in Korea are also getting back—the latest is Bob Gates. The smiling Robert caught three years for the baseball team, and also won his W on the football team. Too bad you couldn't be here this year Bob, but after you get that discharge paper next October we'll see you back in blue and white—replaces that khaki. Welcome back—and thanks, Bob, and all the rest of the G.I.'s for a Merry Christmas.
