BADGES FOR DISTINGUISHING PURPOSES ARE RECOMMENDED FOR MEMBERS OF FACULTY

How would it do if all faculty members should be required to wear some distinguishing badge? It is supposed that freshmen are more or less easily recognized by their innocent and verdant faces, and sophs by their weary, blasé expressions, but how on earth are we to know the faculty folks? Some of them look as unsophisticated and wistful as sweet sixteen, while others (at times) as if nothing that could possibly happen would ever interest, much less surprise them.

Ask some freshman at the beginning of the quarter or even someone who was a freshman some previous quarter if it would not have prevented several embarrassing moments just to have known who were the instructors.

Take the time of our popular young sheiks asked a certain man to occupy his seat in assembly till roll had been taken, and received the crushing reply: "Sorry, but, you see, I am taking the roll."

Or the time one of the student librarians asked a nice little maid what grade she was in, meaning training school, and discovered she

INTERESTING WEEK IS ANTICIPATED

Summer Bulletin for Prospective Students Ready to be Sent Out

A number of attractive booklets containing information and announcements pertaining to the summer quarter have recently been prepared by the Bellingham State Normal for distribution among prospective students.

The customary booklet announcing the faculty and courses of study for the summer quarter, as well as general information concerning registration expenses and requirements for graduation is one of those which may be had by applying to the office of the president.

The summer session at the Friday Harbor Biological Station jointly sponsored by the Bellingham Normal School and the University of Washington, is described in detail through a special booklet illustrated and provided with information concerning expenses, necessary supplies, sailing schedules, and courses of study.

The National Camp Fire Training course offered this summer at Camp Samish is described in another booklet which gives the program of the training course, the staff, and information about expenses, registration, and transportation.

An eight-page pamphlet illustrated with scenic views is devoted to the recreation program for the summer of 1926. Points of interest in the surrounding region are described and a schedule of trips and hikes for evenings, as well as Saturdays and week-ends, is given.

CONSTITUTION TRIP PLANS FORMULATED

Hikers to Start up Mt. Constitution Immediately After Reaching Olga; Trip 15 Mi.

A sufficient number have signed for the trip to Mt. Constitution on May 27, so the Islander can be chartered. The boat will leave at seven sharp instead of seven-thirty, as was previously announced, in order that the climb may be more easily made.

The hikers will start up Mt. Constitution immediately upon landing at Olga; this trip which includes returning by way of East Sound, is about fifteen miles long, but is not at all difficult climbing. The boat will leave Olga at twelve and go to East Sound, where the rest of the day will be spent, and anyone not wishing to climb may stay at Olga and East Sound. If sufficient interest is shown another group may hike directly from Olga to East Sound, stopping for a short time at Cascade lake. This hike would be eight miles.

Trip Requirements.

Ordinary hiking clothes will be worn and two lunches will be taken, one to be eaten on the trail and the other in the evening. Cups and spoons must not be forgotten either. Candy, ice cream and cocoa will be sold on the boat and anyone wanting candy for the trip is asked to buy it on the boat letting the profit go to the W. A. A. The boat will leave East Sound at five or a little sooner and everyone should be with in sound of the boat's whistle at four o'clock, in order that it may leave as soon as the hikers arrive.

Tickets will be on sale Wednesday afternoon, Thursday and Friday. Round trip tickets are one dollar.

NOTED VIOLINIST GIVES CONCERT

Peter Meremblum, Noted Russian Violinist, Makes Third Appearance at the Normal.

Peter Meremblum, Russian violinist, was presented in a concert in the assembly this morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Meremblum has been very successful in his efforts to please his audience here for this is his third appearance at the Normal in concerts. He is connected with the Cornish School at Seattle and is prominent in the musical circles of the coast where he is in much demand as a musician. During the winter he has been a member of a trio of musicians and he is an organizer of a little symphony orchestra.

TRIBUTE PAID WELL KNOWN EDUCATOR

The flag on the Normal School campus was lowered to half mast yesterday in tribute to Dr. Frank Deerwester, whose funeral was held yesterday at two o'clock, from the First Christian church. The death was the result of an automobile accident last Monday afternoon.

Dr. Deerwester was a former member of the Normal School faculty, having been head of the Department of Education here from 1907 to 1917. Since leaving a similar position at the Kansas State Teachers' College, Pittsburg, Kansas, he has been senior partner of the Deerwester-Button Book Store, in Bellingham.

Dr. Bever, of the Normal School, acted as one of the pall bearers at the funeral, which was conducted by the Masonic Lodge.

Columbia, Cornell, Harvard, Pennsylvania and Yale Universities have received invitations from the German Federation of Rowing Clubs to compete in the 90th Anniversary Regatta of the Hamburg Rowing Club to be held on July 10th and 11th.

Hard Lines

By "Smilin' Bob"

Again, greetings! Most weeks are observed—in honor of some thing—or other—There is the Raisin—Health or Fire Prevention—but this, the greatest of all,—will be dubbed "Introduction Week"—sponsored by "Hard Lines Bob"—As you may notice—new comers will be featured—and new enemies will be made—but it is all in—a day's work—and anyway, we only pass this—way once—So here goes!

I GET THE NAME OF

Stella Lawson. Yes you have been a pledge long enough. You are now a full fledged member of the publicity gang. I'll collect the two dollars Monday.

WHAT'S WRONG WITH THIS PICTURE?

Miss Sundquist has just made a call for volunteers to read their quarterly themes. Paul Linderman is the first to respond.

VODVIL NUGGETS.

"Has anyone seen my cat?"—Edith Egbert.

"Howdy dew, Lamkin Bros., howdy dew!"—Ruth McCullough.

"The fifty cents is in your coat pocket." Yoshi Yaga Alfa.

I'M VERY SORRY BUT I HAVE TO WORK SATURDAY NIGHT.

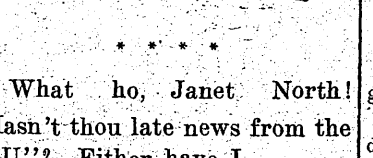

Yes, Olive Romalia, we'll all agree with you that Troy is some swell boy.

WEEKLY WHISKER NOTES

All of the boys report that their crops are doing fine under careful guidance. "Gussie" Edwards says that he can count an even dozen since the recent spring rains. But beware of the coming Fall frosts that show no favorites.

Well Neva Ruppel, did you get enough dues money to buy that new hat?

A PICTURE WITHOUT WORDS

What ho, Janet North! Hasn't thou late news from the "U"? Either have I.

INTRODUCING

Edith Ebily, a new victim of the columnists. She is a blue eyed blonde and a star of the 1 o'clock Psychology class. She is very fond of the city of Burlington.

HEY ED!

Have you seen the classy red bug that Ruth Campbell and Jack Harper ride in (I mean ride on)?

ARTISTS ARE NAMED FOR COMING COURSE

Variety of Entertainment to be Featured in Course Which Will Include Five Numbers.

The joint committee representing the Normal School and the Women's Music Club, selected the following course of Musical Artists for next year. Those present at the committee meeting representing the Women's Club, were Mrs. William Davis, president of the club; Mrs. William Gardiner, chairman; Mrs. J. J. Donozan, and Miss Edith Strange. Representing the Normal School were President C. H. Fisher, H. C. Philippi, chairman; Maude M. Slawson, Victor H. Hoppe, and Harold B. Smith.

The course for next year will consist of five numbers instead of six, as has been the case in former years. The number of attractions has been reduced because of the high price that is being paid for two of the numbers.

The first number, which will be given some time in November, is the Russian Symphonic Choir, which is really a body of solo singers joined together under the able leadership of a master musician, Basile Kibalchich, director. The choir is made up of twenty-two voices, eleven of whom are men and eleven women. The choir represents a new form of vocal ensemble. The director has taken the Symphony Orchestra as a model and has given each voice of his choir the same value as each instrument has in the modern orchestra. A feature of the appeal which this unique organization makes is that the members appear in picturesque Russian costume.

MANY STUDENTS RECEIVE POSITIONS

Grammar, Intermediate, Primary, and Rural Teachers Are Placed in Entire State.

LIBRARY BOOKS TO BE IN BY JUNE 1

All books belonging to the Main Library and the Children's Library must be returned to the library on or before Tuesday, June 1, 1926.

No books will be loaned outside of the library after Tuesday, June 1, 1926.

A clearance card will be filed with the Registrar by the Librarian.

The Library will continue to be open until Monday, June 7th, 5 p. m. Students will have to register with the Registrar for the Summer Session if they wish to borrow books during the interim, between quarters. These books must be borrowed on Monday, June 7, 1926.

Memorial Services in Honor of War Heroes Held Thruout Country

American Civil War heroes will be honored on Monday, May 31, this year, since Memorial Day falls on Sunday. Monday will, therefore, be a general school holiday.

The 30th of May has been observed throughout the northern states ever since 1868, when John A. Logan, commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, issued a general order designating it "for the purpose of strewing with flowers or otherwise decorating the graves of comrades who died in the late rebellion. Logan did this with the hope that it would be continued from year to year. Later the Grand Army urged that the proper name for May 30 is Memorial Day—not Decoration Day.

Rhode Island was the first state to make it a legal holiday. The rest of the states of the union have followed her example except a few southern states who have legalized other days for the purpose of honoring Confederate soldiers.

HERO OF THE HILL INSTITUTION VANQUISHES ASSAILANT WHEN ESCAPE APPEARS IMPOSSIBLE

Come ye yourselves apart and Rest Awhile.

Nature calls! The balmy air lures rich and poor, short and tall, A to double F. I. Q's, out to see the birds and bees. Youngsters frolic on yonder village green in childish ecstasy, recalling events of youth to mature minds. Chauncey Griffith looks back (so far!) to days when his was a life of knickerbockers, bean-shooters and freckles. Member the time when you found those caterpillars, Guy Bond—long ago? More appreciative now, you prefer butterflies. Ah,—Nature is so quieting! Fishes devouring worm-covered hooks exemplify eternal Peace of Spring. To seek a lonely spot for meditation was the object of a student when (after reading Wordsworth!) he proceeded to establish harmony with bonnie banks and braes. With the feeble step of age he turned toward the setting sun (via Sunset Trail). Birds twittered and the rocky path became the light, fantastic way. Soon our hero looked down upon a bay's blue waters. Gazing skyward he wondered on,

VIKING ATHLETES EMBARK WED. FOR INLAND EMPIRE

Normal Warriors to Represent Their Alma Mater in Baseball, Tennis and on Track.

OPPONENTS LOOM UP BIG

Prospects Look Good for Blue and White Racquet Weilders to Cop the Hannah Trophy.

Viking tennis, track, and baseball squads left on Wednesday for Cheney where they defend Tri-Normal meet honors which they won last year.

It will be the task of the tennis squad to continue in the drive for the Hannah trophy which will become a permanent possession of the school that wins it for three consecutive times. Last year the team composed of Broadbent, Hannah, and FitzGerald carved W. S. N. on it by playing a flashy brand of ball. There will be two singles and one doubles matches this year instead of one of each, as in previous meets, in order that the possibilities of a tie may be eliminated which necessitates a play off.

Broadbent and Sullivan will carry the singles burden while Keplinger and Broadbent pair off for doubles. FitzGerald is to act as alternate for the squad.

Championship at Stake.

The local diamond stars will meet Cheney for the Tri-Normal championship as Ellensburg has been previously humiliated by the Savages, who boast of a very reliable corps of pitchers. In Cobain, they have a southpaw who has turned in some nice games this season. Moore, another hurler, plans giving Coach Keeney's charges plenty of opposition if he gets the call. Don Patterson, Viking twirling ace, will aim his capped toe at the eastern batsmen to give them far more than they ask. Last week Don allowed but nine hits in two games against the Frosh.

The squad includes Baxter, Patterson, Okerlund, Kure, Estill, Keplinger, Katterle, Stickney, Grannis, Littlefield, Gregory, and Bowler.

Struggle Is Expected.

The track meet probably will be one of the most fiercely contested of recent years since all of the

Another former Viking has earned high honors. Word has been received that Josephine Anstett appeared in a graduation recital at Whitman College this week in which she proved herself to be a talented pianist. Miss Anstett's many friends are very proud of the success that is hers and are confident that the future will bring added laurels to the young artist.

Science and Poetry

(By CLARY HOSKAMER)
2nd Prize, Prose-Literary Contest

There are two streams in poetry: The intellectual or that of reflection of things. People who get only the thought of a poem really miss the real poem and seldom read poetry. The other stream is the instinctive or emotional stream which is by far the more important. We picture the stream of every experience as the play of instincts. An instinct is an impulse to do something of a characteristic kind set off by a characteristic situation. Emotions and attitudes are what the instinctive reaction is like. As in reading a funny poem we have the impulse to laugh and share in the experiences related in our poem. The essential peculiarity of poetry, as of all the arts, is that the full appropriate situation is not present. So imaginative readiness for action takes the place of actual behavior. These two branches are very intimately connected for man is a system of instincts. Intelligence aids man but does not wholly control him. This is the reason, in reading poetry, the words must be given their full imagined sound and body for the movement and sound of words play so important a role on the instincts. This is the reason that in some of Shakespeare's and much of Swinburne's songs the sense of the words can be entirely missed without loss. In nearly all poetry the sound and feel of words precedes their sense for they can be taken in their various shades of meaning as the reader chooses. Now arises the question: "Of what value is poetry?" We recognize the fact that in the same situations different people undergo widely varied experiences. So it is in the case of poetry—people's selection of poetry is decided by the organization of the instincts of the individual. The best life or experience for human beings is the one which enables him to engage as many of his best impulses as possible. Poetry through the ages has recorded this for us. According to psychological analysis, people who suppress their best instincts cause their lives to become very narrow. As the quotation: "The minds of many saints have been as wells; they should have been like lakes, or the sea." A poet cannot give reasons why he uses particular words or rhythms for the choice was never an intellectual matter. They fall into their place without his conscious control but a feeling of rightness is his certainty of their correct positions in his poem. The quantity of words a poet has in his vocabulary, is not as important as the way in which he disposes of them that confirms his rank as a poet. A poet can never imitate other poets for rhythm would betray him. Rhythm directly reflects personality and is not separable from words to which it belongs. Thus we find that only words and knowledge of the technique of poetry cannot give a poem the moving rhythm which arises only from genuinely stirred impulses. A poet must be a master of experiences and situations to which the reader's mind may properly and readily respond. Poetry has been a great aid in the intellectual, emotional, and aesthetic development of the civilized nations of the world.

LOCAL ARTIST WILL APPEAR IN RECITAL

Catherine Wade Smith, a Bellingham girl, will give a violin concert at the American Theater on Tuesday evening, May twenty-fifth. Miss Smith is a very successful violinist and recently appeared in recital at the Aeolian Hall and the Town Hall of New York City. For this concert seats in the balcony, with the exception of the first row, have been reserved for Normal students by President Fisher. Seats in the front will be seventy-five cents and in the rear, fifty cents.

Viking Skandal

Earl O'Grady says he used to be a janitor in an insane asylum. He slept in the basement and all the women were wild over him.

The following students wish to express their disappointment in not having their names in this column. (Anyone who feels slighted can leave his name at the Messenger office and it will be printed next week):

- Louise Haller
 - Helen Babcock
 - Joe Baxter
 - Emily Hjaltalin
 - John Kure
 - Verta Templeton
 - Ralph Johnson
 - Georgia Bowers.
- (Continued Next Week)

Our next number will be a solo by "Canary Bird" Wheaton, the famous tennis star.

Stanley Evatt wants the world to know that he has lost a valuable $5 and that he is offering a liberal reward for its return. He has a dinner party date soon and needs it badly.

"Sleepy" Reeves and his gang attended a social given by a local Swedish church last Monday night. A fine lunch and a good time was enjoyed by all.

WHO ISN'T WORKING SATURDAY NIGHT?

Well, Jessie James, did you finally get the door open? Too bad "Granny" wasn't there.

Notice—Will any girls having dates with "Wilson Creek" Sullivan kindly be sure and tell him where they live. Lots of houses on Garden Street aren't there, "Sully"? What did you say her name was?

We wonder how Meryl Bird got so popular at the Viking Vodvil?

Some students love to sit in the movies and others sit in the movies to love.

How's the University boys, Edens Hall?

We hear several of the students, including Phil Sisk and Merle Kibbe, have declared their intentions of buying motorcycles so the town boys won't be so popular at the hill climbing contests on Ivy street.

Girls! Girls! We hear Grover Brown and Don Sturtz are patiently waiting for a date for the informal. Lets hope there will be at least two Normal boys there.

Why do Evelyn Fowler and Lavorne Lindfors go home every Friday night? How's Loren and Ray, girls?

Student Opinion

Wanted! A new definition for "sneak," to be immediately followed by "day."

The "Soph Sneak" was a joke, and a tame one at that. Where's the thrill of cutting a day of school when the whole "Frosh" force knows your destination as well as you do, if not better? And then, steals your own thunder, and goes to "Lummi!" somehow. The Sophs don't seem to be able to keep "mum," and the Frosh don't appreciate school enough to disregard the news tattled by the upper-classmen. Such is Sneak Day.

If last week's demonstration entitled, the future students the privilege of "sneaking" we hope they'll remember that "silence is golden."
—A SOPH.

TRAINING SCHOOL PRESENTS PARADE

Miniature Festival Pageant is Given by Members Primary Grades; Elect a Tulip Queen.

The parade which was staged on the campus last Friday by training school children of the primary grades, was the result of interest aroused in Bellingham's Tulip Festival and parade.

Interest manifested in the city parade gave rise to a discussion by the children. The children in their endeavors to describe the parade, with its floats, found it necessary to use new words which would fittingly describe the floats and at the same time make a distinction. The Weekly News Sheet of the second grade contained short descriptive articles of the parade.

Having discussed the civic parade, the children asked if they might have a parade, since this has come to be almost a tradition of the training school. This granted, plans were immediately made. All through the year bits of colored paper had been saved which were put into use for the parade, thus making it of no expense. Each child was permitted to choose two colors to use for decorating with which he might combine any neutral color. Correlation was made with previous color combination work studied in art.

A list of colors was placed on the board to enable the children in making a selection. Each child was to write his name opposite his choice.

Second grade children have somewhat outgrown the use of toys, and it was found that some material was lacking for use in the parade. This lent itself particularly well in the helping of others, for soon the children were found working in groups, helping each other. Each one was free to do his own decorating in whatever way he wished. The children were encouraged to estimate their materials. When paper was cut it was done on the basis of actual measurements only.

Tulip Queen Elected.

It was hoped that the question of a Tulip Queen could be avoided; however, the children insisted on having one. They took it in their hands to select one. This was done in a systematic manner by following the idea used by Bellingham. Each of the three primary grades nominated a candidate and then all three grades voted. The second grade very much wanted their candidate as Queen, but saw that the float was more suitable for the first grade girl; so this gave in and the first grade girl was elected Queen.

The entire idea served as a topic for a live discussion. The main object was to draw upon something which was of a common and vital interest to the children. The "I haven't anything, but I'll help the others" idea developed co-operation among the children, thus submerging the interest of each for what was best for the group.

The entire project provided language through a social situation. The parade provided real experiences for the child to tell about. Throughout the whole plan, oral and written language, reading, art, and measurements were involved.

WEEK-END TRIP IS ENJOYED BY CLUB

Normal Faculty and Students Go on Mt. Baker Club Trip and Lunch in Mazama Cabin.

A number of Normal faculty members and students enjoyed a week-end outing with the Mt. Baker Club last Saturday night and Sunday. The outing took place in the vicinity of the camp of the St. Paul & Tacoma Lumber Company, in the Kulshan district.

Through the kindness of the superintendent, Jack Sutherland, the hikers were carried from a point four miles below Heister's ranch to the camp proper, over the company's railroad. Here, instead of having to sleep on the ground, empty bunk-houses were placed at their disposal.

On Sunday noon the mid-day lunch was eaten near the Mazama Cabin—the objective of the hike. This is about seven and a half miles from the logging camp.

A 6:15 breakfast and a 5:30 dinner were eaten by the mountaineers in the camp cook-house. The students were somewhat bewildered by the quantity, quality, and variety of the food served. Some of the girls were heard to inquire as to the possibility of jobs as "flunkies."

In the midst of the baseball game, Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Sam Carver and William "Bill" Cochran had quite a discussion as to whether or not the lady touched first base. Judge Brown, the well known arbitrator, ruled that the feet of the first baseman were not of such proportions that it would have been impossible. The game in question being one of the Messenger advertisers, we are not at liberty to divulge his or her name.

With the enthusiastic farewells of the assembled loggers ringing in their ears, the tired, sleepy, and altogether happy band of hikers slipped down the winding valley a la hobo on the flat cars provided for that purpose by the lumber company.

BETTER SHOWING IS MADE IN FIRE DRILL

Lloyd Mabon, the Normal's new fire chief, is well pleased with the way in which the students responded in fire drill held Monday morning. The building was emptied in 1 minute and 38 seconds in the practice alarm turned in Monday. Signs had been previously posted in all rooms telling exactly what to do when the alarm is sounded. Use was made of the three entrances of the building in clearing and was found to work very satisfactorily. This leaves the fire escapes for emergency use only.

An efficient fire squad was organized by Miss Skalley, and a great deal of credit is due her for the smooth manner in which the building was emptied. The squad is composed of the following people: Lloyd Mabon, chief; Velma LeMaster, Inez Clark, Margaret Black, and Bryson Hankins. Each member of this squad is to choose two assistants, and to work one floor.

Members of the squad commended the way in which the students backed up the movement by keeping order and moving away from the building. It is thought that in the near future, when everyone is more familiar with what is expected of them, the building may be cleared in less than a minute and a half.

This drill, in charge of a capable squad, is a great asset to the school in providing for the safety of the students in case of an emergency. It is hoped that more stress may be laid on the fire drill in the main building and that it will become a common occurrence.

WATER LILY DANCE PLANNED BY GIRLS

Informal Will be Given Tomorrow Night at Edens Hall; Schirrmann Furnish Music.

A "Water Lily Informal" will be given by the girls of Edens Hall tomorrow evening, May 22, as their spring dance.

The reception room of Edens Hall, where the dance will start at 8:30 o'clock, will be profusely decorated in flowers of pastel shades.

Punch will be served from a decorated "wishing well" and novel programs and favors, in keeping with the decorations have been ordered.

Music for the dance will be furnished by an orchestra secured through Schirrmann.

Patrons and patronesses are: President and Mrs. C. H. Fisher, Miss McPherson, Miss Wold, Miss Johnson, Mr. Arntzen and Mr. Kolstad.

The committees in charge of the dance are: General chairman, Bertha Weber; decorations, Lucille Forcum, chairman; Carrie Crippen, Dorothy Deighton, Violet Hartman, Emmeline Moss, Anna Marie Cronin, and Grace Wicklund; music, Orlena Moore, chairman; Genevieve Dresser, and Thelma Butler; programs, Fae Allen, chairman, Orlena Young, Margaret Foss, and Jane Dagger; Refreshments, Marguerite Siggelko, chairman, Agnes Madsen, Blanche McLaughlin, and Helen Primley.

C. C. INFORMAL TO BE JUNE FOURTH

The College Club Spring Informal which was to have been given on Saturday, May 29, has been postponed until Friday, June 4, by action taken by the club at a meeting on Tuesday at 4 o'clock in room 108. The dance will be given at Edens Hall and will be open to members of the club and their friends.

Hortense MacMaster, president of club has announced the following as chairmen of committees for the dance: Tom Large, Myrtle Clemens, Helen Neilson, Kathleen Ewart, Edna Price, and Ralph Bailey. Erma Sadler with a committee composed of Mildred Crane, Kathleen Ewart, and Mildred Dick are now busy collecting the club dues.

Philos Initiate

The Philo club held their spring initiation on Thursday evening, May 13, in the big gym, those who had succeeded in making the club in the spring tryouts being the initiates.

Besides the customary initiation, stunts many new and grotesque ones were gone through by the new members. John Kerr, Orlena Young, Bertha Weber, Kirvin Smith and Arthur Adamson had charge of the "horror."

Refreshments consisting of ice cream and macaroons were served in the Home Economics room after the initiation. The new members were allowed their portions after they had sufficiently entertained the old members.

Lucy Wilson Wed

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wilson, 1909 Colby Avenue, Everett, announce the marriage of their daughter, Lucie, to Earl Keplinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Keplinger, of this city, Tuesday, May 4, in Vancouver, B. C. The bride is a graduate of Everett High School and has been attending Bellingham Normal School. Mr. and Mrs. Keplinger will live in Bellingham for the present.

SCHOLARSHIP CLUB TO MEET TUESDAY

A meeting of the Scholarship Society was held Tuesday, May 18, at 3 o'clock. At this meeting it was decided that the next one of the series of lectures would be given next Tuesday, May 25 at 8 o'clock in room 108. At this meeting a talk on "How to keep up with the times thru History" will be given by Mr. Williams of the History Department. Everyone who is interested is invited to attend.

A banquet for new and old members will be given June 4 and all the alumni will be invited. The guests will also include those who gave the lectures for the society.

College Club Outing

About twenty-five members of the College Club and their friends enjoyed the club picnic which was given Sunday, May 16, on the shores of Lake Whatcom. The picnickers boarded the 2:30 Lake Whatcom car and were met at the end of the line by autos which conveyed them to the boat house. There six rowboats were chartered and despite the drizzling rain, the party crossed the lake to a somewhat drier place to eat.

After the picnic supper everyone went boating until dusk, when the party rowed back to the boathouse, singing and happy.

Mr. Arthur Kolstad, club sponsor, acted as chaperone for the party. Mildred Dick, Elizabeth Florence, Everett Poling, and Earl Hemmi made the arrangements for the affair.

DANCING CLASS TO GIVE PERFORMANCE

Natural Setting of Knoll Will Add Color to Program That Is for High School Seniors.

The Natural Dancing class will give a program of their class work next Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock on the knoll. This program will be part of the entertainment for the high school girls who will be guests of the Women's League on this day. The knoll with its natural setting of trees and shrubs is an ideal place for Natural Dancing.

This is the first time that a class of this kind has been offered in the school. The course consists of an appreciation and interpretation of music by means of natural movements of the body such as running, leaping, skipping, and walking.

The pieces used for the program will be "Skip for Three," "May Day Galop," those being studies in skipping, "The Three Graces" and "An Interpretation of Chopin's Prelude," are studies in pitch of the music. Part of the program will be the telling of stories and nursery rhymes. The costumes used will be those made by the girls and which they use for regular class work.

All those free at 3 o'clock are invited to attend this demonstration.

is Reinald Werrenrath, baritone. Without question, Mr. Werrenrath is the foremost American baritone of today and one of the most popular singers this country has ever had. Mr. Werrenrath will appear some time during the month of January.

The third number of this course is Elly Ney, regarded by many critics as Europe's greatest pianist. She will appear late in the month of January. Elly Ney possesses a magnetic personality and has a unique reputation for winning an audience with her playing.

The next number on the course is the Elshuco Trio from New York City. The Trio is composed of William Kroll, violinist; William Willeke, cellist; and Aurelio Giorni, pianist. The Elshuco Trio will appear in the month of March. This Trio represents the perfection of ensemble. They will give a concert of supreme merit. Each member of the Trio is an artist in his own right, and their combined performance is given with unusual skill and beauty.

The last number of the course will be Rosa Ponselle, dramatic soprano, of the Metropolitan Opera House, who will appear late in March. Rosa Ponselle is of American birth and Italian blood, a combination which has resulted in producing a remarkable singer. She possesses one of the greatest soprano voices to be heard today.

The committee was unanimous in the choice of these artists, and offers this course to the public with the confidence that it is the best course that it was possible for them to arrange, and probably the best course that has yet been offered to Bellingham.

Caps and gowns, the traditional emblem of seniors, were worn for the first time at the meeting of the student body held last Tuesday at the State College.

VIKING ATHLETES IN TRI-NORMAL MEET

schools have made good showings in preliminary showings. Cheney has opposed Gonzaga and the State College frosh and made times and distances that were exceptional for early-season meets.

Each of the Normals has men of recognized ability. Burns, of Ellensburg, is a pole-vaulter de luxe as well as a whiz in other events. Rumberg, former W. S. C. frosh star, is a weight man at his best with the discus and shot. Not long ago he set a new minor collegiate record by heaving the iron ball 39 feet, 6 inches.

Not to be outdone by his opponents, Coach Carver will pin his hopes on Large and Prigg. Tom is an all around man who specializes in the weight events and who may take a fling at the hurdles. Ward was Tri-normal sprint champion last year and should lead the field in the hundred and the two-hundred again.

The track squad consists of Prigg, Hemmi, Stickney, Reeves, Hawkins, Sullivan, Korsboen, Abbey, Large, Shelton, Hoggatt, and Evatt.

Dance Is Postponed

Due to numerous other social affairs this week-end, the Newman Club dance which was scheduled for this evening, has been postponed indefinitely, according to Helene Hefty, club president.

GERMAN FILM WILL BE SHOWN WEDNESDAY

"Germany As It Is Today." A moving picture film, will be shown in the auditorium Wednesday evening, May 26, at 8:00 p. m.

This picture will be exhibited under the direction of Dr. Robert Trent, of Germany. Dr. Trent will also lecture on this subject.

This program is under the auspices of the Bellingham Concordia. There will be special music under the direction of Mr. Gottschalk. This seven-reel film is being shown here in Bellingham for the first time. It is for one night only, and the regular admission is fifty cents—students twenty-five.

Because of the Field day Saturday, May 22, no hikes were scheduled by the W. A. A. for the week-end. However if enough are interested a hike up Whatcom Creek, led by Mr. Bond, will be taken Sunday, May 23.

Four hundred and fourteen jobs were on the program to be done when the State College of Washington had campus day last week.
