

Normal Anecdotes

BY "ZAC"

"Normal Anecdotes" is making its initial bow to the public with this issue of the Messenger. Here's hoping that all of my readers will see their names in this column many times this quarter. Now for the benefit of the folks who were away last year I'm going to give you my version of what happened:

- Monday, Sept. 23, 1925—everybody becomes pedigreed and registered.
- Oct. 10—Maori Quintette gives their conception of the American college yell.

- Dec. 18—Normal students give up the nation-wide search for "Sally" and ask "Show Me the Way to Go Home."
- Thus ended the first quarter of different work.
- Jan. 4—Winter Quarter begins. Grades received for Fall Quarter. Prevailing scarcity of "As."
- Jan. 25—Benno Mowisevitchyz piano recital.

- Everybody signs Klipsuns.

It is fitting to add here that classes were conducted during the last three-quarters as per usual.

The way we'll all be feeling about next week this time.

Speed Gets 'Em

Norman "Bob" Burchette, famous for his lyric soprano, participated in the recent class day exercises five minutes after he ceased being a freshman.

Logan and Lindsay, locally known for their excursion parties, deserve honorable mention. They have decided to go to work for the summer.

PHOTOGRAPHED BY REQUEST

George Allez as the camera sees him on Sunset Trail.

What Games!

Henry "Romance" Durr won the ivory handled tooth-pick at a recent banquet given in his honor at Harry's Place for having more names in his Klipsun than anybody else. "How many names did you sign yourself, Hank?"

HASTA LUEGO

SUMMER SCHOOL STUDENTS NUMBER 925 TO DATE

Enrollment Will Total About a Thousand When Added to Number at Friday Harbor.

ATTENDANCE REDUCED

Smaller Enrollment Is Indication of Progress in Status of Teacher Training in State.

Last minute reports from the Registrar's office reveal that about nine hundred and twenty-five have registered up to date. With the number who will attend the Friday Harbor Biological Station added to this figure it is expected that one thousand students will be enrolled this summer.

By comparing this figure with those of a year ago it is found that there are about two hundred and fifty less students. Cheney Normal reports a similar shortage, while Ellensburg reports two hundred less.

Low Grade Certificate Eliminated

This general falling away of enrollment is due to the fact that the low grade certificate has been eliminated. Students are no longer granted a certificate to teach in the public schools of the state by attending Normal twelve weeks in the summer as has been the practice until recently. Many students would come direct from high school, pass the state tests, and go out to teach the following fall. This practice has been stopped, and the elementary certificate is soon to share the same fate.

Two Years Training Required

President Fisher said today that we have reached the time when two years attendance at Normal will be considered a minimum training for a state certificate or diploma. This will result in a more substantial and satisfactory attendance which, he believes, is an indication of progress in the status of teacher training in the state. In all probability the enrollment for the fall quarter will resume its usual proportions.

CAMP FIRE COURSE GIVEN AT SAMISH

Training Course Directed Like Regular Camp Program Followed by Camp Fire Girls.

Fifty students are enrolled in the Camp Fire training course at Camp Samish on Samish Island. The course began on June 11th and will continue until Saturday, June 19th. The majority of those enrolled are former Bellingham students, but it has been interesting to note that an exchange of ideas in girls' work is inevitable for the enrollment consists of girls from Idaho, California, Oregon, Arkansas and Washington, and executives from New York and Kansas.

The training course is being directed similarly to the regular camp program followed by the Camp Fire girls during their periods at Camp Samish.

A rousing song period starts the day and is followed by basketry, hand craft, nature lore, hiking and out-door sports. During this last week Miss Keeler and Miss Roseine will go out and teach classes in Psychology of the Adolescent Girl, and nature study.

Several of the girls who are now at the camp will return to the Normal on Monday, June 21st, and enroll with one and one-half credits to their good for a week of interesting work combined with recreation.

Fisher Extends To All A Hearty Welcome in Tuesday's Assembly

Tuesday morning President Fisher greeted the students in his usual whole hearted manner, bringing to mind the idealistic features of the school.

Its faults, being those of youth, can always be easily corrected. There is at present the problem of too many teachers for positions. This institution has graduated five thousand already, on an average of five or six hundred a year. The lowering of attendance for this term is not a warning, but a sign of progress in the best interests of teaching.

If this condition continues and requirements are raised, salaries will again increase. With such a contrast between the schools in this state and California it is plain that it is up to the professional teacher to raise the standard in defense of education.

SPORT DEPARTMENT ASKS FOR QUESTIONS

This issue of the Messenger sees the inauguration of a new column. It is the purpose of the staff to answer any questions concerning athletics at the Bellingham Normal. We will try to reply to any question written us regarding past athletic activities here and also give information for the coming season whenever it is possible.

All questions should be in the Messenger box, which is located outside room 205, on or before Tuesday of every week.

CHORAL SOCIETY MEETS MONDAY

Everybody Wishing to Sing Is Eligible to Join This Fast Growing Organization.

Next Monday evening at 7:30 the Normal Choral society will begin work on "Creation," Haydn's most famous and best loved oratorio which is to be presented in the school auditorium later in the quarter.

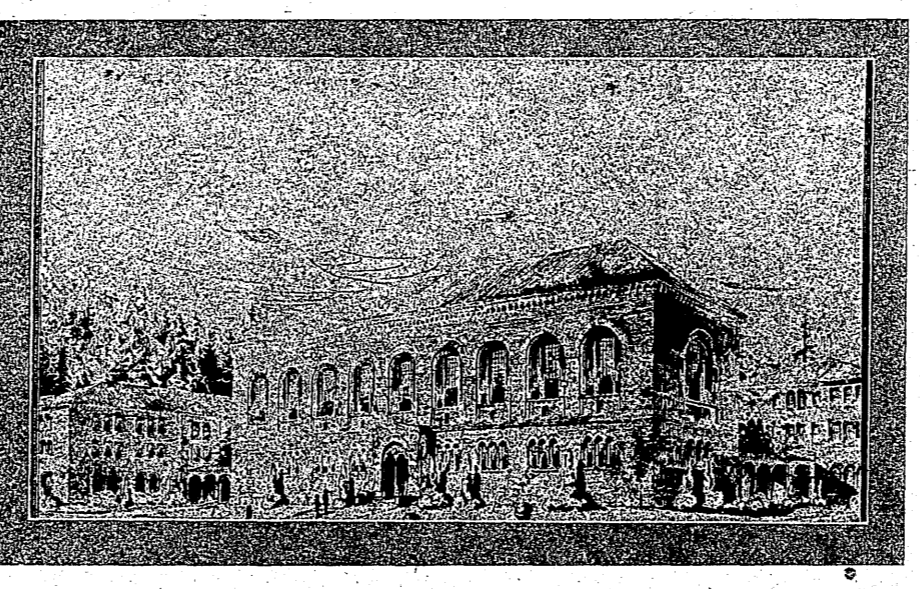

Everyone who has an interest in choral singing is invited to join in the work. There will be no voice tests and all Normal students are eligible to membership. All who complete the season of twelve weeks course will receive one hour's credit in Music 20.

The chorus last quarter was composed of one hundred fifty voices which under the direction of Harold B. Smith, instructor in the music department of this school successfully presented DuBois' "Seven Last Words of Christ" and Rossini's "Stabat Mater" before appreciative audiences. Professional oratorio soloists assist in the work and a twenty piece orchestra composed of prominent local musicians plays all of the accompaniments.

Two hours of rehearsal is held every Monday evening. The society is active under the leadership of Mr. Smith, director; Lloyd Mabon, president, and Don Oltz, vice president.

Literary institutes held in the evening for working adults are popular in London.

BELLINGHAM NORMAL'S NEW LIBRARY

Architect's conception of the New School Library, to be erected on the campus of the Washington State Normal School. The site facing the west end of the present campus has been acquired. Preliminary work has been done such as clearing and grading. Further plans are for the closing of Cedar street in front of the site and for the cutting through of a scenic drive to rear of the campus.

BOND LEADS PARTY TO TOP OF BAKER

Mount Baker was scaled for the second time this year on Saturday when a party led by Professor E. A. Bond, reached the top about 2:30 p.m. There were eight in the party, which had gone to Kulshan cabin, between Heliotrope and Grouse ridges to prepare the way for the beds that are to be placed therein by the Mount Baker club, and without any previous plans for a summit climb.

"We simply started out for a hike and kept going until we got to the top," said Mr. Bond. He reports as much snow on Baker as he has ever seen.

The other members of the party were: C. A. Fisher, Miss Leona Sundquist, Miss Theresa Gunther, Austin Bond, Kenneth Selby and Ed. Arntzen.

TRAINING SCHOOL ADDICT IS CONVINCED OF THE VERACITY OF AN ANCIENT ADAGE

Life is just one thing after another, as Mr. Marquis has so frequently and truthfully mused. But when it comes to entering the training school for the first time with the intention of pulling down four credit hours in six weeks, I maintain that life is much more than one thing right after another. Certainly there is more than one thing following the preceding things, and I'm tempted to apply the famous old adjective to them.

The first thing you are aware of when you enter the room is about forty-five pairs of eyes critically examining you from head to foot. Every move that you make, every bit of apparel that is visible, yes—even the size of your shoes is closely scrutinized by these active observers. But as luck will have things, there is a supervisor on the job who has pity on you. She asks your name and tells you where you may be seated. In order to make you feel more comfortable she will give you a text book to look at or you may just sit and observe how the trick is done. Still there is that ever conscious feeling of being watched. Watched by individuals who are keenly alive, looking for the new and ready to adopt it.

But that isn't all there is to it. So far the next thing has always been something different. Now they tell me that I've got to try my hand at the job. If I live through the period, I'll say that teaching is some profession.

Normal Drama Club Presents "Minick" To Two Capacity Audiences

Playing to appreciative audiences last Monday and Tuesday evenings the Drama club under the direction of Mr. Hoppe scored heavily with George S. Kaufman and Edna Ferbers three act comedy "Minick."

Ted Cederberg did full justice to the feature part of "Old Man Minick" keeping his audience busy checking tears and laughs alternately. Meryl Bird and Mary Culver went through the trials and tribulations that befall a young married couple who try to fit an elderly man into their scheme of living. Madeline Freese and John Fitzgerald as the young Corey family are at their best in Chicago apartment society with the Diamonds or Peggy Magoon and Norman Vance coming close seconds.

As servants, Hazel Bisbee could say "Yassuh" and Ruth McCullough, "How-r-yu?" with the best of them. Of the club women 400, none were as apt at meeting procedure as Gladys Burroughs, Elizabeth Forrest, Melba Coffman and Mary Margaret Doyle. It was the part of Angus Edwards as James J. Price and Norman Burchette as Eugene B. Diethofer to add a few comical touches to the performance. These two inmates of Grants Home sit through long sessions in the park with old man Minick, curb important business investments with him, and in the end lure him to the Home where he can "pay his three hundred a year and be free as a bird."

The work which Director Hoppe obtained from this cast was highly pleasing and added another success to the long list of Normal Drama club performances. Work will commence next week on the summer production which will be Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet" played in the Greenwood Theater later this quarter.

"Minick's management was ably handled by Bill Mock, business; Mrs. Bisbee, publicity; Norman Vance, stage, and Evelyn Hagen, ushers.

BOARD OF CONTROL SELECTS OFFICERS

Grace Jacobson and Estelle Martinson Elected to Fill Places of Resigned Members.

A very successful year was brought to a close by the Students Association and the Board of Control last week as the spring quarter ended.

During the year the business of the association has been handled by the members of the board efficiently. Two of the members of the board, Margaret Black, who resigned, and Ward Prigg, whose term had expired, left at the end of the term. These vacancies were filled at an election of the association, in which Grace Jacobson and Estelle Martinson were elected. Miss Jacobson will serve two quarters and Miss Martinson has a regular four quarter appointment.

Other Officers Chosen

Other offices were filled by board action before the end of the quarter. Norman Burchette was reelected editor of the Messenger, and Bryon Hankins succeeds himself as business manager. Sverre Arestad has been chosen to act as business manager of the Klipsun for next year. The editor of the Klipsun will be Dick Burghoffer. As Inez Clark is not returning this quarter Robert Wagner was chosen to act as secretary to the Board of Control.

The Board of Control is now working upon a number of problems. A committee, headed by Floyd Mabon, is working upon plans for the revision of the emblem and award system. This revision will be completed in time for it to be entered into the Blue Book this fall.

The survey for the building of tennis courts on the land owned by the Students' Association on the west side of High street, has been completed. The plan is to build

CLASSIC PROGRAMS ARRANGED FOR SUMMER QUARTER

Noted Lecturers and Artists as Well as Local Talent Presented on Normal Stage.

WALTER BATES RETURNS

Monday, July 5, Will Be Holiday Giving Everybody a Chance to Celebrate.

Feature attractions of the school calendar for the next few weeks have been arranged by President Fisher which give promise of offering some high class entertainment.

In the regular assembly next Tuesday, Lowe Bartruff, a student of this school and a pupil of Edith Strange of this city, will give a piano recital. He has appeared on the local stage before and has a large following.

Bellingham's Singers club, organized by Harrison Raymond, will give its first public concert at the Normal auditorium on the evening of June 24. Only 200 tickets will be available for the public, however. These will sell at 75 cents each. The chorus has sixty voices and holds frequent rehearsals. William Ludiam is its pianist.

Finney To Speak

During the following week, Ross L. Finney, assistant professor in the department of Educational Sociology at the University of Minnesota, will give a series of lectures in the school auditorium and before numerous clubs of the city. He will speak before the regular assembly Tuesday, June 29. His subjects will be announced at a later date.

Claire K. Tripp, Director of the Educational Bureau of Washington Industries, will address the Friday assembly on July 2.

As the Fourth of July comes on Sunday school will be closed the following day so that the students may take part in various celebrations that are to be held.

Hortense Yule, a local soprano, will return to the city from intensive training and study in the East soon. Plans are made to have her appear in recital on Tuesday, July 6, before the school assembly.

Walter Bates, Canadian tenor, will appear in a return engagement before the morning assembly on Friday, June 16. The artist scored heavily in his last concert with a difficult and pleasing program.

Many more attractions will be announced in this paper soon.

EARLE A. ROWELL LECTURES ON DOPE

The first assembly of the summer quarter was called Tuesday at 11 o'clock. After singing the school song and "America, The Beautiful," led by Mr. Smith, President Fisher introduced Mr. Earle A. Rowell of the National White Cross Anti-Narcotic League.

Some of the startling points made by the speaker were that there are one million drug addicts in this country; two-thirds of whom are under twenty-five, and one-third of whom are under nineteen years old; only one in ten thousand are ever cured; ninety-nine per cent of the victims are victims because of innocence of its effects; one-half of the crimes are committed in the attempt to procure the narcotic.

As pointed out by the speaker the text books in all schools are seriously lacking in their treatment of this terrible menace and it is only through the teacher that the young people can be guarded.

WELCOME TO YOU ALL!

With the first issue of this quarter's Weekly Messenger a welcome to you all is in order. Of course I mean the new students and those who have been away for a time. The few of the Old Guard who are left know already that you are welcome to all (that you can get).

This is a wonderful school in a more wonderful city. This is a wonderful time to be in school working hard for more knowledge. Yessir, wonderful! And don't forget "Wreck Hour" from four till five every Friday afternoon, in the big gym.

As I sit here and marvel at our beautiful campus, watch the sun shine on the blue bay and feel a cool breeze waltz through the window, I can't help but—as I think of my Math II and Public School Law assignments I can't help but—well anyway, I've just got to study.

Here's a hearty Welcome To You All anyway (and you can just call me Lester if you like).

PLEASE CO-OPERATE

At this time the Editor and his assistants make a plea for every Viking please to co-operate in making the Messenger 100 per cent efficient and the best college weekly in the country.

There are many ways in which each one of you can help. Be on the alert for news. If you go home for the week end or know of someone else who is going somewhere sometime let us know about it. If you get a good laugh or joke on a buddy let one of the columnists in on it. Get into the swim and see how much fun it is. Yes, and if you get married send us a piece of the cake and the groom's picture.

The Messenger is for you and would enjoy hearing from all. Remember that the editors receive all contributions, suggestions and criticisms in room 205.

"SEE BELLINGHAM"

Professor Williams has made it possible for the students of this school to "See Bellingham" every Tuesday afternoon as guests of the Social Science club and the local Chamber of Commerce.

It is planned to make one hour trips to the various places of interest as well as to the larger scenes of busy industry by automobile and under guidance in an entertaining and educational manner.

The Messenger is more than pleased to call your attention to this feature of the summer quarter. We should all appreciate the personal interest which is being shown through this series of city tours.

MESSANGER LEADERS

Three members of last quarter's Messenger staffs have distinguished themselves in receiving appointments to more advanced positions.

Richard Burghoffer has been chosen Editor in Chief of the 1927 Klipsun by the Board of Control. He was responsible for a great deal of the fine art work in this year's annual through his connections as Art Editor. Dick ably directed the art section of the recent spring supplement to the Messenger.

Sverre Arestad will act as Business Manager for the next year book. He is Sports Editor of the school newspaper at the present time.

Vernon Zachrison has been appointed Associate Editor of the Messenger for the summer quarter. He has gained much experience in this line through his two terms' work as reporter having specialized in feature writing, special assignments, and the technicalities of make up. "Zac" will contribute a column weekly and assist at the print shop each Thursday afternoon.

It is therefore proved that a little journalistic experience never hinders anyone.

by "SMILING BOB"

For the luvva Mike! Don't get excited, I'm not going to keep this up, I'm just holding down this column until next week, when a regular strip starts that is to have all the dope on the Friday Harbor gang.

With Mary Hibner away for the summer I'm the only trustee left around the institution. Give me your sympathy gang for there's a tough winter ahead.

WHEE!

Sverre Arestad, alias Parsimonious Luke alias Print Shop Dan, announces that he will autograph all notebooks and photographs of the fair sex in the Students' Association room every noon. A heavy run is predicted for the genial guardian of the Klipsun's purse strings.

And why, "Romance" do the stars seem different at 3 o'clock in the morning.

THAT'S FOR YOU TOO, "SLEEPY"

Lord help the R. O. T. C. and C. M. T. C. rookies in an era like this. Especially Private William "Bill" Russell Mock.

Well gang, we should all make our letter in Horseshoes this quarter now that Andy "Scotchman Russet" McCall has withdrawn from the tournament.

"Three Ball" Charroin reports that business is brisk as ever. Yep, briskin' right by.

OBITUARY

In this plot do the memories of "Collar Ad" Eddie and his "Viking Skandal" R. I. P. It will be a long while tho' before the bouquets stop coming from the many readers and fellow excursionists.

But Thelma Butler is still around and the Firemen's Quartette is saved for another spell.

And the moustache of Ralf Johnson grows on forever!

THANKS TO CHESTERFIELD "Such Popularity Must Be Deserved."

For phone booth No. 2 'is being installed to the great joy of many a couple.

Hats off to Bob Wagner! He plays the typewriter in seven flats and has never had a lesson. Warm canine!

As "Bobbie" Kristofferson just yelled "That's enough!", I'll take the hint and sign off.

Don't forget tho'—to remember me—to all the folks—and to save the second waltz—for yours truly.

TRAINING SCHOOL REOPENS MONDAY

Work For Summer Session To Be Similar To That Of The Regular School Term.

The training school reopened for the summer session on Monday. The school will last for six weeks and embody the half-day session plan.

Work for the summer will be very similar to that carried on through the year, in that the same effort toward worthwhile interests will be made. Perhaps somewhat more review work will be done in the fundamentals than is done during the year.

An assembly will be held once a week, just as has been done during the past year.

A large number of children had been registered in the training school before the close of last quarter. Among these were several children of Normal students who will be here for the summer.

Faculty for Summer Named
Of the regular staff of faculty members of the training school the following are here for the summer session:

Mary E. Rich, Director of Training School; Catherine Montgomery, teacher of technique; Priscilla M. Kinsman, pre-primary; Mildred Moffatt, second grade; Pearl Merriman, fourth grade; Eleanor Osborn, fifth grade; Winifred Speisike, sixth grade; and Bertha Crawford, eighth grade.

Special appointments for the summer include: Hazel Menier of the elementary school, University of Chicago for the third grade; Sadie E. Fitzgerald, of the training school, State Normal, Towson, Maryland, for the fifth and sixth grade, and Barbara Wafer, University of Washington, Lakeside Public School, Seattle, for seventh grade.

In addition, Laura M. May, of the Teachers' College, Columbia University, will act as supervisor in city schools. Anna D. Halberg, of Maryland State Normal School, has been director of twenty-five teaching centers in Baltimore, and will supervise the students who are to work with the accelerated group of city children.

BASEBALL SQUADS ARE TO BE FORMED

Baseball seems to have it. The Freshmen girls are to organize a baseball squad which will square off against the Sophomore nine in a series of scheduled matches. There is always a great deal of interest manifest among the girls for athletics. In the spring quarter the Sophomore girls took the championship to the galloping Freshies by a large score. Most of those Freshman girls have become Sophomores and are now extending their challenge to the incoming Freshmen. Should the women of the school become as interested in baseball this summer as they were last spring we should see a healthy turnout.

THREE BASEBALL TEAMS ORGANIZED

TENNIS TOURNAMENT THIS SUMMER

Three Baseball Clubs Will Be Organized by Men's Club This Summer

MEN'S CLUB WILL HAVE 3 TEAMS IN BASEBALL LEAGUE

Two Games Planned for Each Week When Tournament Gets Going at Full Speed

MUCH FUN EXPECTED

Anyone Who Is Able to Swing Broad Ax and Run Bases Is Eligible to Sign

Interest is being drummed up for the men's baseball club of the Normal. Josiah Baxter, who started the season behind the platter for Coach Harold Keeney's chargers this year, will organize, one of the teams that will compete in the tournament. The other rival managers have not been named yet, but it is hoped that at least four teams will be organized.

When the tournament gets in full swing there will be at least two games each week for the four teams.

When the tournament gets into the games will be run off on Waldo Field at 4 o'clock every day. In case that two scheduled games fall on the same day one of them will be played later in the evening and will take on the aspect of a twilight mix.

The standards of eligibility that were prevalent last year still hold good. Anyone who can swing an ax or its equivalent, a baseball bat, and can run bases, is eligible.

The boys are looking forward to a glorious season. Much fun is expected at home. "Every man in school is to get on a baseball squad at whatever cost," is the slogan of Coaches Carver and Keeney.

HANDBALL

The handball courts are in good condition and it is expected that within the next few days they will be a scene of bustling activity. Most of the competitors will be girls since Paul Rule's partner, Mark Jarrett, is not in school this quarter. Paul might double up with one of the fairer sex and organize a mixed doubles conference tournament.

LATE NEWS

There will be three baseball clubs organized within the next week. Baxter's Dishwashers, "Hankins' Hoosiers" and "Bond's Bums" will be the three teams to compose the diamond league this summer. Every man in school should affiliate himself with one of these clubs.

MANY ENJOY WATER AT Y. W. C. A. TANK

Summer seems to be the popular time to program for swimming. Practically all of the eight classes are already closed. Most of the students are enrolled in the six beginner classes although the intermediate and advanced group have nearly a full quota.

The instruction of these classes is in the hands of Miss Ewald, a newcomer in the physical education department. Miss Ewald is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin. With such a competent instructor in charge the girls' swimming work promises to be highly beneficial and enjoyable.

In commenting on her work Miss Ewald said that with the beginners the first work would be in breathing and cultivating a feeling of general at-homeness in the water. The first constructive work will be in learning the much famed "American Crawl."

Red Cross life saving methods will be included in the work of the advanced classes.

Diamond Sparkles

By HANK

All conference athletics have been postponed for this season but will be renewed with the reopening of school next fall. Prospects for next year look good since many lettermen have expressed their intentions of returning to the Normal fold. In reviewing the records of the past season the Vikings have enjoyed a very successful year in the major sports.

Next week will see the organization of baseball clubs that will compete in the men's club baseball tournament. Several of this year's diamond stars have returned for the summer quarter and with an abundance of other material some good teams should be developed. If the men of the school show the same amount of interest that was manifest last year we may well look forward to a flashy brand of ball in a few weeks time.

With the variety of sports that may be had at the Bellingham Normal this summer in addition to the week end hikes and mid-week trips, there should be opportunity for all students, men and women, to participate in at least one branch of athletics.

Let us make this summer the liveliest one that has been at the Normal-by-the-Sea and everyone turn out for at least one athletic activity.

FOUR WEEK END TRIPS SCHEDULED

July 2-3-4-5—Twin Lake and Austin Pass.
July 17-18-19—Climb Mt. Baker.
July 30-31—Hannegan Pass.
August 13-14-15—The Sisters.

Fourteen Men Are Initiated Into "W" Club This Year

Tom Large Wins From Large Field In Great Cake Eating Contest

Friday, June 4th, the big "W" club held their annual spring initiation. All but two of the qualified initiates showed up to demonstrate that they had the right stuff in them off the athletic field as well as on it. They demonstrated without doubt that there was more than a single purpose in their activities in the sprint sports. That's the spirit we like.

These men were pretty rugged; there being only one casualty during the entire evening, that when Kep turned an ankle.

Tom Large proved that he is the champion cake eater of the bunch, although the defending champion, Joe Baxter, ran him a close second.

After running three heats "Play Games" Reeves showed his ability running in his bare feet over a hundred yard course of broken beer bottles and barnacles, by taking the race from ten entrants.

The stunts were topped off by a big crew race which ended in a tie. Several men collapsed at the finish from the intense heat, but were soon revived by the smell of stew and the rest of the evening dinner.

After the eats were devoured a meeting was held and the following officers were elected to serve next year: Lyman Stickney, president; Earl Hemmi, vice president, and Don Patterson, secretary. It is the policy of the club at the spring meeting to elect honorary captains for the five major sports during the past year. The following were honored: Football, Ray Odell; basket ball, Lester Rhodes; baseball, Don Patterson; track, Ward Prigg; tennis, John Fitzgerald.

EIGHT SHORT TRIPS PLANNED AND FOUR SATURDAY OUTINGS

Shorter Trips to be Taken to Nearby Beauty Spots on Tuesday Evenings

MT. CONSTITUTION TRIP

All Who Intend Take Longer Trips Are Urged to Go on Short Jaunts to Condition

Hearken ye nature lovers, and all others who are interested in the hiking program for the summer. The program, as arranged, is sure to meet the approval of practically every student.

The hikes are divided into three classes. The shorter are on Tuesday evenings which anyone may take, and which will serve to acquaint the hikers with the nearer beauty spots. Then there are the longer trips on Saturdays and sharing with these the week end trips. The hiking season opens with an evening trip this coming Tuesday, June 23, with Lake Padden as the objective. The following Saturday ushers the open season on week-end trips with an all-day jaunt to Austin Pass.

Miss Frank warns that all students participating in these trips must have their heart tested. She also wishes to remind prospective Mt. Baker and Hannegan Pass hikers that they must take the required preliminary hikes. Three Tuesday and two Saturday trips are required before students are being allowed to participate in the several mountain climbs. This is to insure all persons being in proper physical condition. Here are the dates and destinations. Keep them in mind and be ready to "get in" on all the fun. A pamphlet containing the complete recreational program and requirements can be secured in the registrar's office.

PLENTY OF VARIETY IN SPORTS PROGRAM

Baseball, Horseshots, Tennis, Basketball, and Handball to Furnish Recreation For All

There will be plenty of variety in summer sports program. Intra-normal baseball, a horseshoe tournament, tennis matches, hand ball and probably basketball will furnish plenty of exercise for those athletically inclined.

For people who do not care for competitive sports there will be horseshoe riding, hiking and excursions.

Baseball teams will be organized by each of the clubs who will play off a regular schedule of games. A round robin horseshoe will be started and every player will have a chance to show his skill at the ancient pastime, sometimes dubbed barnyard golf.

Many Tennis Matches

The many devotees of tennis will have plenty of competition and will have to "strut their stuff" to give a high ranking in the tournament.

Hand ball is always a popular sport and will draw its share of the students. If basketball is played, there will be many who will come out to play on the club teams, as basketball is always popular even in the summer.

Horseshoe riding will take its quota, especially of those who have not forgotten "Dobbin" for "Lizzie." Hikes and excursions are always welcome, more so because of the many places of beauty, which can be reached in a few hours and which will always be remembered.

LAKE PADDEN HIKE

Tuesday, June 23, is First Hike Of Season. Students Leave At 4:30 For Lake Padden.

The hiking program will get underway Tuesday, June 23, when the first party will leave in front of the main entrance at 4:30 p. m. for Lake Padden. Each person is to bring his own lunch.
Students who sign up for the hike must have an heart examination. Now is the time to get in condition for the longer trips.

INTEREST IN TENNIS DEVELOPS GREATLY AT NORMAL SCHOOL

About One Hundred and Thirty Students Have Signed for Tennis Courses

TOURNAMENT IN JULY

Thirteen Classes in Session; Everyone May Enter Tournament Except Lettermen

About one hundred and thirty students have signed for the tennis course. There are thirteen classes. Ten of these are reserved exclusively for women. The men are fast filling the three classes reserved for them.

Student teachers make application and are assigned certain classes to teach. This is valuable experience for the teachers.

Tennis Tournament

The tennis tournament last quarter was a success from every standpoint. About forty-five people signed up for the tournament which was run on an elimination basis. This summer there is to be a bigger tournament run on the same plan. Play will start about the middle of July. No one is barred except lettermen. It is not always a good policy to bar anyone, but in this case it is necessary. If lettermen are allowed to compete, play will be too fast for most of the entrants and the majority will lose interest.

The tournament will not start before the 15th of next month. This is done in order that people wishing to enter the tournament may get into practice.

TEA PARTY IS GIVEN BY WOMEN'S LEAGUE

'Get-Together' For Summer School Students And Faculty Proves Pleasing Event.

The Women's League entertained the faculty and the summer school students with a get-together tea at Edens Hall on Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 5:30.

Tea and wafers were served by a number of the girls. A short program was enjoyed by the visitors and this was followed by a game in which each person strove to obtain the most names of other people. In return he gave his name and the introduction was completed by a handshake either American, double clasp, or Japanese.

The tea was under the direction of Estelle Martinson. Philomine Hynes was the program chairman.

The following program was enthusiastically received:

Piano solo, Mary Margaret Doyle. Dance, Madeline Freese.

Violin solo, Vera Laznika.

President Entertains

Harold Hill took the bass solo of the anthem, "The King of Love" in the evening worship at the First Presbyterian church.

Catherine Randall played Blake's "March" as a postlude to the evening service of the First Christian church last Sunday evening.

A hive of Professor Kincaid's bees swarmed on the front entrance of Science hall, University of Washington, and completely blocked the way for a short time recently.

"WHEN EAST MEETS WEST" IS ADDRESS

President Norman F. Coleman Of Reed College Relates Few Experiences To Graduates.

"When East Meets West" was the theme of the commencement address delivered by President Norman F. Coleman of Reed College in the auditorium last Thursday morning. The program began with processional music by the Normal School orchestra and an invocation by Reverend Charles McCaughey.

Mr. Coleman's address was founded on personal contacts and observations in the Orient. He said the first feeling when Orientals and Occidentals meet is shock and dislike of the unusual. After that comes a period of education and understanding followed by a period of possible cooperation. Continued intercourse shows many important ways in which the two races can be mutually benefited by working together. Hawaii is an example of this as only about thirty thousand of the total population of three hundred thousand are white people. The others are Japanese, Chinese, Koreans, Filipinos and Hawaiians.

Mr. Coleman believes that in another generation or so the interests of the Pacific coast will be nearer to Shanghai and Yokohama than to New York and Boston. The peace of the future depends on mutual understanding. If groups of people become suspicious of each other a spark is all that is needed to start trouble.

After Mr. Coleman's address the Williams trio gave two musical numbers; then President Fisher presented the class of 1926 for their diplomas which were awarded by Dr. William D. Kirkpatrick, chairman of the Board of Trustees.

Water, Earth, Sky (By Carrie Crippen)

Water, earth, sky, soft, deep, blue water, set with diamonds; hard diamonds, whose sparkles ever reach up to the sunlike rain turned up side down. Like stars, shining from earth to sky, yet brighter than stars, more gaudy. A mass of stars together where the sun points fiercely. Hard, crystal diamonds on azure water.

Infinite sky, sky that lifts me up, carries me to the nothingness beyond the transparent blue. Beckons me on and on and on and on and on.

No cloud save one white puff for ornament above the deep shadowed blue velvet island set between blue water and blue sky like piece of cardboard; a mooring to which man clings while his soul explores the limitless human wonderings.

Two souls are there. Water, showing its jewels, its gaudy finery above a black, angry turbulence; always fighting, twisting, lashing, sucking, hiding, a boiling, foaming soul beneath exaggerated splendor.

Sky, limitless magnificence, a serene, naked soul; boundless, uncramped, without end or beginning. Diamonds fade, melt into black water.

HORSESHOE ARTISTS WILL START SOON

There will be a chance for horseshoe artists to strut their stuff within the next few days. Plans are being formulated and the tournament should be under way in a very short time. There is some rumor that the members of the faculty are to organize an horseshoe pitching league. If this rumor materializes we should see plenty of Nick Altrucks in action.

COLLEGIANS FROM CALIFORNIA TO SING

When the California Glee club boys visited Bellingham last year they made themselves decidedly popular with theturgers here, and next week they are back in town appearing at the Whatcom High School in the course of their yearly caravan. Again they are led by C. R. "Briek" Morse, who has been their leader for many years.

Mr. Morse took over the work with the glee club after completing a successful university career, during which he took not only a leading part in musical affairs, but became one of the university's greatest athletes as a member of the varsity football and track squads.

He then studied voice in New York for two years and continued his vocal training in Paris several years later. He is the composer of several string quartets, as well as some of the University of California's most famous songs, such as "Hail to California," "Sons of California" and "Eterna California."

Under Mr. Morse's direction the collegians will offer a program running all the way from snappy college numbers and comic songs to operatic selections. The program differs materially from those presented by other college glee clubs. Though one of the main features of the program is the vaudeville, there are plenty of classic numbers to balance it up, and they sing numerous college songs as only a college glee club can.

The boys have toured the Orient, Europe, Canada, Alaska and the United States, and the polish acquired on these journeys has resulted in sparking and pleasing entertainment. They are on their way to the Orient now.

The Glee Club will appear at the Whatcom High School Auditorium, Tuesday evening, June 22, 8:00 p.m. Reserved seats, 75 cents, on sale at Stark Piano Co., 1317 Cornwall Ave. (Paid Advertisement)
