

March 6
1925

Ninth meeting of the Students Association, held March 6, 1925

Meeting called to order by the president, Daisy Howard.
Minutes of the last meeting read and approved.

Sweaters were awarded to the football men having earned them, and Miniature footballs were given to men who participated in football this school year but who have already received sweaters. "24" pins were awarded to Mr. Bond and Miss Gray, faculty members who have served on the Board of Control. The Allison Debate Cup which became the permanent possession of this normal school this year was presented.

Report given by Mr.
H. B. Davis on the work of the committee on honorship and leadership societies. There shall be two separate societies because two separate abilities and capacities are being recognized. The names of these organizations shall be (1.) Honorary Scholarship Society and (2.) Honorary Leadership Society.

Goals of Scholarship Society.

1. To stimulate higher scholastic ideals among members of the society and the student body.
2. To serve as a stimulus and an aid to individual members to prepare life programs which are commensurate with their possibilities of service to society.
3. To provide occasions for association of student members with outsiders of similar scholastic outlook.
4. To stimulate graduate members in service to higher professional service.

IV. Requirements for admission: (General)

1. Scholastic personality.
 - (a) positive and constructive minded.
 - (b) intellectual honesty.

inquiring and with opinions, not merely contentions.

(c) a student in good regular standing

2. Moral and social personality.

(a) The habit of keeping one's word.

(b) Honesty and fair play in all work.

(c) Willingness to assume moral and social responsibility.

(d) The habit of meeting one's financial obligations.

3. Grades (This point has not been worked out yet, but will be on the point system, A-- so many points B-- less, and so on.)

Standing in the society is not permanent if the member slumps on the job.

Honorary Leadership Society.

I. Aims.

(a) To give recognition to students who have capacities for good leadership.

(b) To lead to a study of the factors involved in leadership in order that members of the society and students may better develop their capacities for leadership.

(c) To improve the conditions for honesty, friendliness, and support among the students and Alumni.

(d) To give the moral and social capacities a chance for expansion.

Requirements for elections

- (a) A fairly high scholastic standing approximately the average for the school. (To be on the point system.)
- (b) Moral and social responsibility (Same as for Scholarship Soc.)
- (c) Any person is eligible, not merely those who are serving or who have served, provided they meet requirements.

Committee still working on the organization of these societies.

Motion made ^{that} the student body express its appreciation to Mr. Guy Allison for the debate cup. Motion carried. Secretary instructed to write a letter of thanks to Mr. Allison.

Meeting adjourned.

Rose Gray, Sec.
