

February 6, 1946

The meeting was called to order. The minutes were read and approved.

Under new business the first thing discussed was the apportionments. The president then gave a financial report from the business office. The balance is:

Athletics:	$1,266.83
Collegian:	305.63	(in debt)
Social:	710.94
Women's Athletics:	720.84
Band & Orchestra:	188.22
Klipsun:	902.05
Student Union:	62.37
Drama Dept:	8.00	(in debt)

A motion was made and passed that we appropriate $700 to the athletic fund for this quarter. Another motion was made that we appropriate $905 to the Collegian for the next quarter. Also that the $62.37 credited to the student union be moved to the social fund.

New business then discussed was our candidates for the nominating convention. Zelma Blekkink was unanimously elected as the candidate for four quarter woman. The nominee for four quarter man or woman was Bill O'Neill.

It was then discussed about the sleeping bags and skills that were to be ordered. It was stated the Mr. Earle wished to handle the transaction through the Co-op in order to make the bookkeeping easier.

—Mr. Earle, it was reported, wished to have a questionnaire made out and given to the students asking them for suggestions on what they would like to have in the co-op other than the articles that are already there. A committee was then elected to work with Mr. Earle. Members of this committee are Don Packard, Margaret Whittaker and George Burton.

There was no further business. The motion was made that the meeting be adjourned. It was seconded and passed. The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Louise Holbrook
