

Board of Control Minutes

August 10, 1938

The regular meeting of August 10, 1938 was not called to order because there were only six present and seven were needed to form a quorum.

The minutes of July 20 were read and approved.

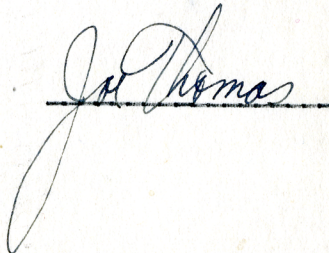

There was discussion on the new table in the A. S. Office.

Mr. Neil mentioned the fact that new furniture would be needed for rec hour. Discussion followed as to price and type.

There was discussion as to the distribution of mail in the Co-op, which resulted in more discussion pro and con on the Co-Op.

The session turned into a betting office as Neil and Thomas laid a bet as to the Salary of the President of the University of Washington. Neil bet he received under $14,000.00 a year and Thomas insisted he received $14,000.00 or more.

Session adjourned.

Secretary.
