

A college is like a book; its life, its impact, its reality depend a good deal on its setting. Take away that set-ting-that local color-and the glow departs. That's why we've drawn our theme this year from Western's setting. That's why we've built our book around "College, City, and County."
Try to imagine Western set on a barren plain or swallowed up by some monster metropolis. Take away the grandeur of the encircling mountains, the sparkling bay below, the lovely lakes and hills, the secluded beaches. Take away the friendly people of Bellingham, the fiery sunsets, low-swooping gulls. Take away the salt air, the bad stretches of High Street, the scent of rain on pavement. And what's left? Not the Western we love.
Through our college years we collect memories to be recalled long after we have left the campus. In this brief record we have only tried to capture some of the spirit and flavor of our great Northwest-this county, this city, this college, that was our home, our corner, in 1956-'57.

Fall at Western

FEW AMONG MANY-These Western students are busy filling out the seemingly endless forms which are given them as they go through registration line.

CLOSED CLASSES present one big problem to many. Otto Heinz, one of the many freshmen, sits glumly on the stairs wondering what to do now. Cheer up, Otto. Maybe you can get into Burlesque 100 or Basketweaving 101.
"UMM, THIS POTATO SALAD is good," seems to be what Shirley Smutz is thinking to herself while participating in one of the many picnics and outings that start off Western's fall quarter.

"WHAT NEXT is on the schedulenot more tests, I hope!" Charles Lundy and Otto Heinz are about done in from the activities of freshman registration.

Faculty and AdministrationInstructors have to talk for a living, so they are usually found expounding their views and a few facts in the classroom. Administrators are in offices keeping the business side functioning and helping to solve the many problems which arise concerning students and their classroom or college life. But, like the students, there are times when they may be found roaming the campus, or talking over a cup of coffee, taking part in the numerous activities every college sponsors - from giving wholehearted support to their team at a ball game to shaving balloons at a school carnival.

Like their pupils, faculty members have a wide range of expression as the students have learned to their joy or sorrow.

Each year the Klipsun is a pictorialized record of progress of the College achieved by trustees, faculty and students. This year has been unusual. What will the future historian of the College write of $1956-1957$ ? He will write of the erection of Highland Hall; the Student Union Building; the enrollment of $2070,33 \%$ above the postwar peak in 1949-1950, $62 \%$ above that of 1953 , and $19 \%$ above that of 1955-1956; legislative appropriations for higher salaries and wages, additional faculty and staff, and the Science Building costing more than two and a third million dollars; the new approach from the City Center to the College; also the initiation of the preparation of high school business education teachers.
The future historian of the College will find the Klipsun's interpretation of the College in 1956-1957 very helpful. Also, this record of progress is made human and will be kept by each student for reference to his college days. We shall always be grateful to Phyllis Hirni, editor; Frances Brunie, associate editor; James Bliss, faculty adviser; and the student staff members for their sincere and competent effort in behalf of a very acceptable yearbook.

CHECKING THE TRANSCRIPT of a transfer student is Dr. Merle Kuder, Director of Student Personnel Services.
"ARE YOU SURE the registration cards are in order?"' Registration is a big job for these three, Mr. Donald Ferris, registrar; Mrs. Dorothy Button, assistant registrar; and Mr. William O'Neil, assistant director of student personnel services.

TALKING OVER some students' records are the people who are probably the best known on campus, Miss Lorraine Powers, Dean of Women; and Mr. Clyde McDonald, Dean of Men. It is their job to house Western's students or to help them find part-time employment.

LOCATING POSITIONS for student and prospective teachers occupies Mr. Melvin A. "Pat" Allan, Appointment Secretary and "job-finder" at Western.

THE CHEERY SMILES of the nurses (above), Misses Viola Summers and Thelma Palmer, almost make WWC students forget they are sick. Catching up on the latest shorthand methods are secretaries (right), Miss Mildred Tremain, Dean of Women's office; Miss Ethel Church, office of the President, and Mrs. Ethelyn Sisk, Dean of Men's office.

MANY JOBS AND PROBLEMS faced the officers of the ASB this year. Besides presiding at Board of Control meetings, Ken's job as president was to appoint all standing and special committees of the ASB plus serving as a member on each. He was also responsible for student body finances. Joel Carlson, as the next in line, had charge of emceeing all student assemblies and social events as well as representing ASB on the ICC. Notes and more notes was the task confronting Deanna Swenson as she took minutes at the BOC meetings and handled all correspondence. Handling clerical work of student finances and being secretary to the finance committee was June Kellogg's job as financial secretary.
All and all it added up to a lot of work which kept four people right on their toes.

TOP MAN-Ken Moffett presided over the ASB this year. Ken, always willing to listen, plans to teach a year and then go into Administration or on to law school.

FACULTY MEMBERS of BOC were: Dr. Keith Murray, Mr. James Hildebrand, Miss Margaret Aitken.

Politics and Plans

Whereas in some previous years many hours were wasted in debate, the 1956-57 Board of Control made much progress in student affairs through committee work.

Perhaps the most important action came about through the combined efforts of students and faculty, working in committee. The financing of the Student Union Building was approved by the Federal Housing and Home Administration and detailed building plans were worked out.
Other BOC accomplishments included arrangements for extension of the rules governing elections. They also arranged for the use of Artist and Lecture Series' money for Campus Day.

STUDYING is a necessary part of some students' schedule for the day. Here they try to assimilate "the hereditary influence on the child" from the Ed. book or concentrate on Charlemagne's conquests of Spain. Then there are the other half who spend most of their time in that notorious course, Loungeology. Here the juke box plays soothing music while the students thrash out important issues in international (or school) politics.

Vikings Progress, Upset Eastern

Western Washington's student-fans enjoyed one of the most fascinating football seasons in Viking history during the fall months of 1956. In the opening games a green, inexperienced eleven smothered the gridiron with costly miscues. But as the season progressed, Coach John Kulbitski's charges developed into a well-knit bundle of air and ground attacks.
The Vikings capped their steady climb in football prestige before a large crowd of high-spirited Homecoming fans when they upset the traditional rival-Eastern Washington College.
Injuries were a common problem to the Viks with only a few games passing in which valuable first-string men were not shelved for a week or more. But no serious injuries were suffered which resulted in the loss of a player for the entire season.
Support grew and swelled with the improvement of the squad. Spirit, which at the beginning of the year was dull and gloomy, mushroomed into wholehearted support during the Western-Eastern clash.
All in all John Kulbitski, who completed his first season as Viking head mentor, assistants Ray Ciszek and Chuck Olson, handed WWCE fans a record which will not fall into the impressive win columns, but one that will be remembered as fitting the political theme of the year-progress.

WESTERN'S 1956 FOOTBALL TEAM finished the season with a moderate 2-6 won-lost record, but highlighted the year with a rousing 14-13 Homecoming victory over the Eastern Washington Savages. Pictured above are the following members of Western's gridiron team: back row, Coach John Kulbitski, R. Schott, C.

Toney, J. Sim, B. Larsen, R. Berry, D. Spanier, B. Randall. Second row: J. Rick, manager; B. Karwacki, J. Gard, D. Bridges, R. Hilt, D. Lane, B. Bush, N. Olson, S. Martin, J. Parker, L. Marty, manager. Front row: H. Locker, B. Wilkenson, R. Kolbe, D. McGovern, B. Lindman, D. McLane, J. Jelinek, M. Bowden.

JOHN KULBITSKI, pictured right, opened his first season as head football coach at Western this year. The new Viking gridmaster employed the single wing offense with variations from the double wing and the T formation during the fall to thrill local fans. Kulbitski appears to be summoning fresh talent from the bench as all other eyes are turned toward the action near the Viking goal line.

Intramural Bowling

Tops on the intramural sport list was bowling, fall quarter having twelve teams from the various houses and organizations entering into the league.
The end of the quarter proved the Alley Rats and Head Pins tied for first; Islanders, second; Geyer's Boys, third. In the order of their standing the remaining teams were Mathes House, Bowling Dads, Pin Benders, Lucky Strikes, Hol-lee Rollers, It's the Water, O'Brien's " 5 ," and Hospice "B".

High game winners were Bob Layton, Larry Olson and Dave McFadden.

Intramural Basketball

This was one of the most popular participant sports on campus this fall, as 26 teams clashed. The thump, thump of tennis shoes and leather sphere resounded hollowly in the big gym. The Boilermakers chugged past the Roguers in the tie playoff to win the Class "A" championship. Swishing nets became a familiar sound to the TKB's as they took the Class "B" championship with a perfect record. The not so lowly Lowly Five whipped the Trouble Shooters in the Class "C" playoff.

UPPER-Coming down with the ball is Fred Boede while George Vlastelica looks on in amazement. Watching are John Betrozoff and Dave Ibea. Center, Vlastelica goes up for the shot as Fred Boede, Larry Whitney and Ken Moffett come up too late to stop him. Lower, Fred Boede puts it up for two points while Vlastelica and Ray Key look on helplessly.

Blue, White, Fight, Fight . . .

Three gals and one guy made up this year's yell squad. At every basketball and football game decked out in the traditional blue and white, these four showed a lot of spirit and got the same from the Western rooters. Lee Hauge, Thelma Bay, and Rosalie Rowland, all freshmen, came from Tacoma, Mt. Baker and Dayton, respectively, and have had from two to four years previous experience. Pat Brown, a junior, was a songleader for WWCE the past two years and only this year switched to cheerleader. Camera shy was Linda Lundberg of Goldendale.

Come Join the Vikings . . .

are Peggy Owner and Karolyn Knutsen, trom Seattle and Bellingham, and both have had lots of experience in high school. Absent from the picture is Kathy Davis, a freshman from Sedro Woolley.

Fanta-Sea

"Fanta-Sea, Fanta-Sea, Come join our FantaSea," invited Homecoming chairmen Don Six and Sharon Andreasen as the atmosphere of Homecoming 1956 enveloped the Western campus. Hundreds of students and alumni came to the Viking campus to celebrate the gala events. The Homecoming weekend, November 2-3, was a whirl of exciting events including the house displays, the football game, the skit program, the parade, the spectacular coronation assembly, and the grand climax, the Queen's Ball, which featured the band of Ernie Fields.

A B-I-I-G SMILE seems to be one of Karolyn Knutsen's weapons as she portrays the siren Circe trying to lure Odysseus in the first-prize skit put on by the band. Jim Wilson is the courageaus Odysseus.

SINK THE SAVAGES is what Vic the Vik is literally trying to do, in this mechanically operated display erected by Mathes House. Complete with a blinking red light for the Savage's nose, it deservingly took first prize in the display contest.

VIKINGS TACKLE a Savage as he attempts a touchdown. The Western-Eastern game was one of the Homecoming highlights as Western emerged victorious, 13-7.

GO, BOYS, GO!! Ray Ciszek stands on the sidelines cheering the Viks on to victory.

DANCING IN THE DEEP was the feeling of the Homecoming couples as starfish, seahorses, and the like swayed to and fro above them while dancing at the Queen's Ball.

GUYS AND DOLLS swing and sway with the combo of seven from the Holiday Ballroom. Some fast, some slow, the music was enjoyed by all.

Norsemen's Ball

Soft light, dreamy melodies and gay hearts created a touch of glamour as the crystal ball whirled over the dancers at the annual Norsemen's Ball. The first big event of the season drew many dancing feet to this semi-formal affair of October 19.

TIME OUT for a refreshing drink at the punchbowl is a necessary item when the music fades. Jo Restigen and Bill Elwood (above) are doing the serving honors as couples line up to wait their turn.

"Silver Twilight"

A winter wonderland was the first impression of the many couples who attended the AWS Tolo, held in the Elks Club, December 7. Snowed fir boughs, wreaths, stars, sparkling snowflakes and silver streamers made the ballroom alive with the atmosphere of the approaching winter season.

"SURELY EVEN an ectoplasmic manifestation has a right to expect a little of the milk of human kindness!" Elvira (center) casts an aggrieved glance at Dr. Bradman as she prepares to leave with Charles, much to the displeasure of Ruth (left).

"IS THERE anyone there? One rap for yes . . . two for no." Silence and suspense follows as Madame Arcati (center) communes with those "beyond."

Blithe Spirit

Ghosts, seances and novelists-these made up the theme of the first dramatic presentation of the year, "Blithe Spirit." Madame Arcati, a medium played by Dorothy Tonstad, is employed by Charles (Allan Mathieson), a novelist, to give authenticity to the book he is writing. When Charles' first wife, Elvira (Betty Mock), is materialized by Madame Arcati, he is certainly a confused husband, especially when Ruth, the second wife, portrayed by Janice Benson, is unaware of "the ghost"! Elvira's jealousy leads her to murder Ruth and in the third scene, poor Charles is harassed and haunted by two ghost wives. Rounding out the cast were Jim Eaton as Dr. Bradman, Sharon Toney as Mrs. Bradman, and Esther Kerr as Edith.

Assembly Time

The ten o'clock bell every Tuesday morning was the signal for an assembly. Hundreds of students streamed over to the AM Building to hear outstanding performers and speakersMary Leader, actress; Herbert Marshall, former deputy prime minister of England; Archduke Otto of AustriaHungary, and many others.
Not all the talent came from outside. Concerts by the college band, choir and orchestra were heard, and performances by the Western Players.

STUDENT TALENT was evident at these assemblies as the above students starring in "Hangs Over Thy Head,"

Edens Hall

No one is quite sure what is meant by the "Home of Color and Light," but to two hundred campus co-eds it means friendship, happy hours and something to remember long after graduation day has come and gone.
Social activities rank "the most" with the gals at Edens, especially when MRH is just across the green. In " 56 " the girls lost an election contest to this man's domain and faced the loss as good sports shouldwith a party.
Among the many activities are Parent's Day, the traditional banquets and caroling with the Freshmen serving a Christmas Breakfast. Winter finds the gals competing for the Helmsmen Award for the loudest house at a ball game and with spring comes the Pansy Breakfast for the Frosh and Mothers week-end.

Men's Residence Hall

Here is the loudest house on the campus, complete with trophy to prove it. Social activities really keep the guys on their toes. At Christmas they put forth their best voices, serenading the residents with carols. Of special comment is the $$ 30$ collected at Christmas to be distributed among needy children. In the spring is the annual picnic and the senior breakfast to say good-by. Officers are, back row: Gordon Wilson, social chairman; John Lipe, sergeant-at-arms; Dean Dingerson, chairman of the disciplinary board; Frank Carlson, sec.-treas. Front row: Dick Kolkana, vice-pres.; Ray MacDermott, president, and Mrs. Anderson, housemother.

Highland Hall

Newest member of the circle of men's residences, Highland Hall, houses over 90 college men. Already there was rivalry between MRH and Highland, starting off with the upper hall "stealing" MRH's loudhouse trophy, amid flying snowballs and water fights. A minor "riot" followed, but all in friendliness, of course. The hobbies varied widely as well as having several sportsmen and scholarly students, one of whom got a 3.9 this quarter. Not bad!

Officers are, standing: Gary Bruno, social chairman; Jack Thompson, vice-pres.; Dennis Gregory, sergeant-at-arms; Steven Mark, parliamentarian. Seated are: Stan Pownall, pres.; Mrs. LaVeille, housemother; Terry Johnson, secre-tary-treasurer.

Mathes House

The Mathes boys put together Vic the Vik, an axe, an Indian and some flashing eyes and came up with first prize for the Homecoming house display. Football, basketball and bowling were very popular with these active college men. Scholarship wasn't neglected either. A scholarship contest with Senior Hall brought Mathes top honors twice in a row.
Looking over the house's honors are officers: Larry Buerstatte, athletic director; Neil Clough, social director; Rual Tigner, sec-retary-treasurer; Keller Erwin, president; Mrs. DeGrace, housemother.

Back row: J. Smith, B. Elwood, E. Elm, D. Hagstrom. Front row: D. Six, K. Haag, J. Kreiss, G. Kimbell.

Senior Hall

Dominated by freshmen, the name "Senior Hall" was strictly tradition. Lots and lots of talent sprang from within, including a homecoming queen, pianists, singers and actresses. Being socially minded, the gals sponsored the spring Mardi Gras, and the Barn Dance mixer as well as their house activities. Christmas and Thanksgiving find traditional celebrations at Senior Hall.
Sitting pretty are officers: Barby Berry, social chairman; Deanna Swenson, president; Elsie Jacobson, vice-president. Standing is Evelyn Haryu, secretary-treasurer.

Harborview Hall

Two yarn octopi and a pair of chop sticks were some of the unusual items that can be found at Harborview. The girls that belong to these unique objects were part of the total of sixteen, who resided at the hall. January found the girls sponsoring a mixer with Mathes. The annual voting rivalry with Alpine Court had each house turning out 100 per cent. They celebrated by giving each other a party.

Daniel's Hall

"Far, far away" could be a good explanation for where the boys of Daniel's originate. New York, New Jersey, Alaska, Canada and even Texas were represented here. It was rumored that the Texan had a private room with all the windows open. Love those wide open spaces! Serenading was the favorite pastime of these seventeen men of distinction. If they sing loud enough, Ted Mack may make a sensational discovery.

Presiding over Daniel's were, standing, Dave Englund, president. Seated are, Joe Kilkenny, vice-president; and Mrs. Laviolette, housemother.

Hospice Inn

Actvities galore consumed much of the time of the congenial twenty-six living at the corner of High and Cedar. Everything from running for tolo king to pleasing Uncle Sam kept the house jumping. Charmers on the basketball court, the Hospice boys placed second in the Intramural B League.

Hospice house officers include, standing: Bob Pressler, vicepres.; Mr. Bannerman, housefather; Cecil Stacey, sec.-treas. Seated are Fred Tidwell, pres.; and Mrs. Bannerman, housemother.

Alpine Court

What a treat! The boys at Alpine shared a Christmas party with the pretty coeds of Harborview. Too bad Christmas comes only once a year. The men kept plenty busy though. Their intramural basketball team won in Class C for the second year in a row. The house had it's share of musicians, with a violinist and some uke players, (of questionable talent).

Spencer Hall

On the corner of Chestnut and Garden stands Spencer Hall where eighteen enthusiastic bubbling girls spent their school year. Skiing, swimming, journalism scholarships and singing were all part of these girls' very busy lives. Spencer Hall even had one of those rarities, a girl who received a 4.0 average last quarter. Among the activities the girls sponsored was the orange sale for the W.U.S. drive.
Officers are Marlene Machleid, treasurer; Carrie Brown, secretary; Joanne Engle, president; and Gail Groves, vice-president. Seated is Mrs. Spears, housemother.

Bayview

Marquis Hall

One dozen able bodied, happy, world loving men make their home here along with their mascot, Ginger. They are, back row: P. Willison, B. Rainwater, M. Minnich, G. Koll, G. Fenter, D. Chase, M. Olson. Front row: B. Woobank, F. Strom, Mrs. Markwood, housemother, and Ginger, M. Maeirt.

Littleton's Lodge

At 800 Garden nine contented gals spend their college year. Made up of mostly sophomores and education majors they are, back row: N. Byers, B. Etherton, C. Isham, M. Kramer, E. Perkins, M. McRae, J. Andersson. Front row: Mrs. Littleton, housemother, G. Raby, S. Ziegler.

Boothe's

Four girls were taking up residence here in this friendly house, small, but large enough to allow them to work together. These co-eds were: Back row: D. DeVries, M. McKay. Front row: Mrs. Boothe, housemother; J. Bryson, M. Marr.

YWCA

Taking advantage of the home away from home were these seven gals. At the "Y" they decorated their own rooms. Back row: B. Holmstrom, G. Galbraith, A. Moore, M. Martin, A. Larsen. Front row: S. Edwards, M. Yonekawa, Mrs. Bovard, housemother.

Barr's Hall

Home of the "Barr Tenders", this was a hive of active young men and sportsmen who were, back row: R. Hawley, N. Standley, B. Braun, B. MacDonald, D. Bogart, J. Piller, T. Hagen, D. Morgan, J. Coates, L. Thomsen. Front row: Mrs. Barr, housemother; D. Wilkerson, J. Schampera, R. Smith.

Elkins

Newly organized this year the gals at Elkins were busy, busy with campus activities as well as studies. Back row: D. Schindele, C. Johnson, F. Russell, H. Smeby, V. Peterson, K. Wong. Front row: C. Kennedy, B. Ordt, M. Lund, G. Gaboury, J. Judson. Seated with Mrs. Elkins are J. Smith, B. Duwe, R. Mahn.

Hansen House

"This "on the ball' group of "enthusiasts" really kept things moving. These thirteen young men were proud to have among them Mohammed Usman from India who was taking postgraduate work. Among those living here were, back row: D. Laster, K. Cleveland, D. Walker, E. Njos, B. Brotten, K. McCullough. Front row: S. Mudgett, Mrs. Cunningham, housemother, B. Freeborn, D. Fish, F. Davis.

Halls of Ivy

The gals of the Halls of Ivy were caught up in a whirl of social activities including a Christmas dinner, engagement parties, birthday parties, and a bridal shower. The happy dozen are, standing: K. Stole, J. Gardner, E. Jones, G. Tuininga, J. Hilliker, S. Widner, K. Olson, N. Schilling. Seated: G. Irish, M. Gochnour, B. Franz, J. Uskoski.

College View

Being just across the street from the center of activity, there was no excuse for any of these boys to be late for anything. Those living here were: Back row: J. Duncan, A. Arians, W. McCoy, D. Russell, G. Knutzen. Front row: K. Haun, K. Morgan, I. Hickenbottom, Mrs. Crape, housemother.

Coed Cottage

The girls at Coed Cottage gave a special treat to their houseparents when they decided to take over the cooking for an evening. The surprise dinner was really enjoyed and the cooks were: back row: B. Greer, M. Collins, J. Foster, C. DeChant, J. Johnson, J. McIvor, L. Botting. Front row: K. McDonald, C. Brown, Mrs. Stewart, housemother; D. Tonstad.

Glover's

Both California and Ohio were represented at Glover's where six "happy fellas" made their home. Three freshmen and three upper classmen comprised the group, making it ideal for a "big brother" routine. The residents included: back row: J. Bannecker, R. Brookins, J. Winterholler. Front row: B. Barnes, Mrs. Glover, housemother; H. Stafford, R. Hyppa.

Cozy Cottage

Typical college coeds plugging away for a degree were girls at this house. Seated: V. Eacrett, S. Fox, Mrs. Gallagher, housemother. Standing: C. Plummer.

Lilia's Lodge

Smiling faces were very common at this house. The girls were all active in campus affairs, but of course took time out for studying as well: Sharing the "lodge" were Mrs. Lilja, housemother; R. Reinland, M. Wilbur, K. Davis, P. Bower.

Knorr Hall

This all-freshmen threesome claimed to make the most noise for the smallest number of students. But Major, the cocker spaniel mascot, kept them in line. They were: Mrs. Clausen, housemother; T. Thompson, R. Nash, R. Purdue.

Alki Lodge

Good food, a nice environment and a big happy family were the main reasons why Alki was so popular. Baron Von Kalopen, the dachshund mascot, agreed with this. Living here were, back row: B. Payne, N. Purvis, E. Barcott. Front row: J. DeMonbrun, D. McLean, D. Alder, Mrs. Cornell, housemother.

Tamerlane

Parent's Day, Tamerlane swung open its doors to visiting Moms and Dads. The girls who were there to receive them were, back row: R . Southern, J. Perry, C. Stubbs, B. Orbeck. Front row: J. Trullinger, B. Baker, B. Nye, D. Scheibner, and Mrs. Woodruff, housemother.

Forest Inn

Kmiakan, a pet turtle named after an Indian chief, was a pretty big "cheese" in this forest. The seven girls that lived here with their unusual friend were, back row: K. Turner, N. Hylton, J. Soine, C. Arbogast. Front row: J. Walston, Mrs. Sundquist, housemother; A. Solland, A. Overhus.

Terrace Hall

Crestview

These girls could think of lots of excuses for parties and nothing seemed to pass uncelebrated. Back row: S. Morrical, P. Young, P. Shindler, E. Robinson, J. Johnson, K. Ericksen. Front row: Mrs. Way, housemother, and Margaret; J. Rogers, D. McKinnie, J. Backstrom.

Shuksan Hall

1020 Key Street was where six young men were made to feel very much at home. Back row: J. Ostergard, A. Watkins, R. Flakus. Front row: B. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Altman, housemother and dad; A. Jones.

The Ranch

There was a wide range of interests here with one member, Art Strapp, belonging to the All-American band. Back row: D. Higley, A. Strapp. Front row: B. Knapp, Mrs. Reynolds, housemother; B. Durnan.

Stearns

Vikina

Juniors had the priority at Vikina where Swedish houseparents make their Viking daughters feel at home. They were: Mrs. Kindlund, housemother; M. Spurling, M. Ogdon, G. Sparks, A. Campbell, E. James, M. Owen, D. Maki.

The Chateau

Newly organized in Winter quarter, the Chateau provided a home for six college coeds. Back row: B. Cummings, D. Loughary, N. Martin, S. Ernst, G. Gentala. Front row: C. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Cummings, housemother and dad; M. Frans.

Forest Lane

Known for its home-cooked meals Forest Lane housed these gals who got plenty of opportunities to try out new recipes. Back row: E. Podratz, S. Bjorgen, K. Jones, G. Podratz. Front row: T. Garenzini, S. Terrace.

Klipsun Hall

Davis's

These three boys found a fire in the fireplace very pleasant to come home to after a cold winter walk from campus. Standing, with Mrs. Davis, housemother: D. Lutz, J. Nunamaker, J. Nunamaker.

"HERE'S YOUR SIZE," Don Summers hands a pair of skis to Joan Kalyk as she prepares for a trip to the mountain.

Skiing Condition: Excellent!

Along about December the skiing bug bit novice and expert alike and the season of lessons, ski tows, heavy sweaters, and lots of fun began. Books and assignments were forgotten with the first snowfall and carloads of carefree students visited the Mt. Baker area to enjoy the cold, crisp air, snowy slopes, and all-around fun of skiing.

PREPARING TO FACE one of the slopes at Heather Meadows are these Western skiers. The possibility of broken legs or sprained ankles never seems to daunt the enthusiasm of the sportsmen.

Viking Choraliers

Wearing the traditional blue and white, the Western Washington choir displayed the college colors and their voices of quality on the annual tour as well as at their appearances on campus. Beginning the season with the annual performance on Parents' Day, the choir, under the direction of Bernard Regier, presented a Christmas Concert along with the rest of the Music Department.
After appearing at the Rotary Club on the first day of the tour, the choir presented programs throughout the western part of the state. Port Angeles was treated to an evening concert and many high schools served as hosts to the choir.

In this year's choir are, back row, G. Fenter, L. Olson, D. Gunderson, D. Martin, T. Bowman, president; B. Neisinger, W. Clark, K. Eacrett, J. Okerlund, D. Hubert, G. Langill, T. Hagen, T. Haley, J. Berg, R. Minge, G. Bellos, J. Hamilton, A. Strapp, D. Hedstrom, J. Wilson. Third row: M. Machleid, A. Dragon, T. Meamber, D. Scribner, J. Nunamaker, J. Nunamaker, B. Lindman, D. Sundquist, P. Havens, G. Martin, G. Lind, G. Koll, B.

Ellsworth, G. Forbes, T. Hill, S. Cays, T. Carter. Second row: A. McDonald, P. Brown, S. Fox, J. Hansen, J. Wold, C. Darkow, L. Hamilton, D. Pemberton, S. Malerne, A. Granger, M. Drake, H. Green, C. Bachman, S. Ernst, J. Fairfield. First row: L. Souda, N. Shields, S. Smutz, M. Engum, C. Holms, S. Heavilin, M. Whitney, N. White, H. Erdman, K. Thompson, H. Underwood, Colleen Moors, I. Bellingar, unidentified, B. Engelson, J. Judson, Mr. Regier.

Williams, A. Norman, K. Hartzell, K. Thompson, A. Dragon. Third row: Mr. Regier, C. Thomas, J. Fairfield, J. McIvor, N.

Men's Quartet

Accompanying the choir on their tour was the quartet who provided "inbetween" numbers and much entertainment to the many audiences. They are Gene Langill, Gerald Koll, Dale Martin and Don Sundquist. Colleen Moors was their accompanist.

Vocollegians

Men's Glee Club, Back row: D. Bissett, R. Lee, G. Martin, W. Clark, L. McDonald, D. Schmidt, P. Hoeruegel, J. Berg, W. Barnes, Second row: P. Gerspacher, T. Neves, G.

Viking Band

As usual, the band proved to be of fine quality and under the direction of Dr. Don Walter, gave many excellent performances throughout the year.
The football games kept the band busy fall quarter directed by Jerome Glass, and assisted by the drum majors Virgil Cleveland and Gary Lind, both of whom added spark and color to the group.
Spring quarter was time for tour, the band visiting many Seattle schools, and the surrounding area. The highlight was the playing for the Coronation Ceremony starting off the Daffodil Festival in Sumner.

During May they were host band for the Blossom Time pageant in Bellingham, and then traveled to Victoria, B. C., to play for the Queen's birthday celebration.
Leonard Smith, famous cornetist, was guest artist for the Symphonic Band concert also held in May, and was much enjoyed by all who heard him.

Those appearing in the band this year were, back row: W Rants, L. Hamilton, G. Sparks, E. Bridges, J. Johnson, J. Schermerhorn, G. Martin, D. Miller, A. Bridge, R. Neisinger, R. Sterland, H. Fleck, J. Wilson, D. Hedstrom, G. Anasis, F. Strom, J. DeMonbrun, Dr. Walter, M. Harris, C. Eaton, K Rasmussen, R. Wenning, C. Sweet, R. Barnsness, G. Cleasby, D. Oelrich, D. Murphie. Third row: L. Dodd, C. Youngberg, J. Nott, N. Shields, L. O'Connor, J. Bryson, B. Bell, P. Hoeruegel, D. Durand, D. Steele, J. Hatch, D. Gunderson, J.

Gunderson, K. Copeland, K. Olson, M. Marr, G. Lind, G. Taylor, L. Price, J. Castleman, J. Judson, G. Fenter, M. Gochnour, J. Stow. Second row: A. Strapp, C. Cone, R. Ougland, E. Van Zanten, B. Duvall, L. Jesinger, H. Weldon, N. Larson, L. Blanchard, M. Nordin, J. McKinnon, V. Cleveland, P. Brown, K. Person, C. Brewer, J. Richards. Front row: J. Magelssen, L. Hungerford, A. Roundy, G. Tilden, E. Eliason, F. Bray, C. Moors, M. Young, C. Duvall, M. Lund, W. Reid.

Bellingham Civic Symphony Orchestra

With the musical strains at commencement, the Civic Orchestra, under the direction of Dr. Frank D'Andrea, marks the close of another college season. During the year, the orchestra with its allimportant function supported many programs and was busy producing rich entertainment for music lovers.

At the close of each quarter the orchestra took part in the formal evening activities. For the first time this year, a concert was presented in which students were given an opportunity to perform as soloists with the orchestra. Joyce Wold, Wallace Rants, Don Sundquist and Don Andrus took part. The annual opera found the orchestra at one of its busiest times.

This year the orchestra consisted of: First Violins: B. Gooch, F. Nielsen, D. Nielsen, Geraldine Peterson, V. Michelsen, F. Ibea, J. Pendergrast, G. Podratz, F. Strom, R. Copland, E. Robertson, M. ## Winter Sports

Western Proves Tough Competition

to Top-Ranking Teams

Leroy Nelson paced the Western Washington College of Education Vikings to a won 7, lost 18 record for the 1956-57 basketball season. Rod Schott topped the local rebound department with 244.

The Vikings opened the season by winning two out of their first four contests. But from this point on they fell from the consistent-win column and settled into the role of potential giant killer for the remainder of the year.

The Western quintet unlatched their bag of tricks against the University of British Columbia to win their first conference game of the season, 43-37. However, the Vikings turned in their best performance of the year against the undefeated Pacific Lutheran five. The league leaders finally wobbled off the maple court clutching a narrow 55-51 victory over the Western team.

In their next contest the Vikings upset highly touted Central Washington College of Education, 69-63. From then on the WWCE charges were considered a constant threat by conference opponents.

COACH JACK HUBBARD, finishing his second year at Western, gives last minute instructions to a Viking before sending him out on the floor. Hubbard showed that he had a ball club that, though not always the winner, proved tough opposition even to the best opposing team.

HANG ON TO IT! Arms and legs fly as both teams struggle for the ball but Rod Schott hangs tight as Bob Petrosik and Leroy Nelson keep the opposition away.

SCORE TWO! Reimer (above) goes up to make a basket much to the dismay of St. Martin's.

DOWN THE FLOOR comes Petrosik, an SPC guard trying vainly to take that ball away.

REBOUND - Nelson gets the ball as Schott reaches to stop an opposing team member from interfering.

JUST TRY AND GET THROUGH! Closely guarded by Schott, Bruce Randall, Reimer and Gary Radliff, this St. Martin's player is going to have a tough time getting anywhere with that ball.

Splash Went the Title

The Western Mermen were able to pull some first place honors during the year when Chuck Stutz and Hans Lorentzen swam to victory in a nonconference meet at the U. of W. In the same meet, Trev Barrett took a first place in diving. The Viks lost to the Cougars at WSC as well as to the Eastern Savages. In the Evergreen Conference swim meet, Lorentzen took top honors for Western by finishing first in two events, placing them in third place. UBC took the title followed by Eastern.

POSING WITH Coach Kulbitski is the entire team. Back row: B. Nanney, H. Arnold, C. Stutz, H. Lorentzen. Front row: M. Granger, M. Berg, M. Lonctot, T. Barrett.

FOUR MAIN EVENTS compose the swimming meets-Arnold doing the 200 -yard backstroke; Barrett finishing a one and a half back somersault; Lorentzen in the 200-yard butterfly and Stutz doing an open turn in a lap of the 200 -yard freestyle.

WAITING FOR THE GUN to signal their start in a backstroke event are Howard Arnold and Mike Berg.

IN THEIR FIRST YEAR of college swimming were Melvin Lonctot (left) and Trev Barrett. Barrett found his home in diving, while Lonctot swam the 50 .

VETERAN SWIMMERS Hans Lorentzen (below) and Bob Nanney crouch for start. Lorentzen led the team as captain and high point man for the year.

Election Time Again-

TIME TO CHOOSE the people to represent us in government at Western. Joyce Grage and Judy Schurr discuss platforms and pictures of candidates in trying to make their choice.

NOON RUSH as Western students file into Student Center to take their turns at the newly purchased voting machines.

NOW THE FUN BEGINS! Nadine Schilling looks rather dubious as she takes ballots from box and prepares to begin the hectic job of tabulation.

"One Thousand and One Nights"

One Thousand and One Nights, the theme of this year's Junior Prom, was presented by the Junior Class on March 1st. Greeting the dancers as they entered the gaily decorated gymnasium were Kitty Stole and Tom Romerdahl, co-chairmen, assisted by the other committee chairmen of the gala occasion.

MUCH WORK TO BE DONE-Dean Turnbull, Sharron Olson, and Walt Kauzlarich, (above), are three of the many who spent hours planning and carrying out the plans to make a successful dance.

TO THE 1957 QUEEN-Susie Jacobsen (above) presents Queen Phyllis Bower with a dozen roses, while her court, Marilyn Almgren, Sharron Olson, and Shirley Ziegler look on. Emcee was Walt Kauzlarich.

A CHECKERBOARD OF scarlet-dyed sheets made a ceiling for the Arabic decorated dance, and couples whirled to the music of Jackie Souda's band.

Ancient Drama Modernized

Jean Anouilh's "Antigone," a modern version of a 2,000-year-old Greek tragedy, was the winter dramatic presentation. It is the symbolic story of Antigone (Kathy Garrett), and her efforts to bury her dead brother in spite of orders given by her uncle, King Creon (Al Gunderson). As a result, Antigone is buried alive in a cave and commits suicide. Haemon (Del Dudacek), the King's son and her betrothed, finds Antigone and in an attempt to kill Creon, falls on his own sword.

NO BUDGET WORRIES this week with all those ads. Editor Ken Robertson smiles his approval when Business Manager Anne Roundy shows him the accounts for the week.

WWC Collegian

The Collegian office was the scene of everything from political debates to 11 p.m. hours. Editor Ken Robertson, who won fame for his "flaming editorials" was at his desk late many nights.
For all the people on the Collegian the production of the paper was a cycle that never ended. Posting assignments, pounding typewriters, reading proofs, a long Thursday afternoon at the printshop - as well as trying over and over again to get hold of people for information for stories were all part of the cycle. Satisfaction was always expressed by the Collegian staffers on Friday noon, however, when the most important part of the phase occurredgetting the paper into the hands of the students.

Minor Publications

The Writer, Profile, Navigator, and Homecoming Booklet made up Western's minor publications. The Homecoming Booklet, edited by Dell Abelein, contained all the events for the big week. Creative writing talent made up the Writer as students contributed their stories, essays or poems to editor Stan Lilian. Questions like "who, where, and is he single?" were answered by the Profile under the editorship of Laura O'Connor. The Navigator supplied the general rules and regulations and a calendar of all the year's activities. It was edited by Kay MacKenzie, not pictured.

THAT'S IT for this week. John Betrozoff and Wayne Ehlers, sports editors, read over sports copy for errors. "Sports Snorts" by John was a familiar column in the Collegian.

I DON'T GET IT. Floyd Jonak, Collegian photographer, and Chuck Stutz, photo editor, discuss a picture idea on an assignment sheet, but seem rather dubious about its possibilities.

"I GIVE UP!" pleads Gordon Wilson as Carolyn Brewer, Phyllis Bower and Marion Kemp overpower him with mitts full of snow.

MISS SNO-BALL, 1957. The proud artists of this snow sculpture are Ervin Njos, Kirby Cleveland, Dave Laster, Ken McCullough, Denny McHugo and Bill Freeborn.

Organizations

Inter-Club Council

Under the control of ICC, are all of Western's clubs and organizations. Through this central core, made up of presidents and representatives, a unity is attained and standards are set up for each group to maintain. Back row: S. Garland, R. Small, K. Merager. Second row: R. Smith, J. Hallson, K. Cleveland. Front row: H. Hopf, K. Garrett, M. Winklesky, B. Arnot.

Epsilon Pi Tau

Industrial Arts majors make up this group. Entrance requirements are a grade point of 2.5 and a field major grade point of 3.0. An initiation and installation banquet is held each year for new members and officers.

Kappa Delta Pi

A grade point of 3.0 and being of Junior status makes one eligible for this national education honorary. During Homecoming, a brunch is sponsored by this active group, which also presents an Annual Teacher Award.

WHO WILL WIN? Peggy Heckman, and Lucile Schell make their contribution to the Mile-of-Pennies contest during the WUS Drive.

Pi Kappa Delta

A very active club which participates in speech tournaments at various other colleges. They have won honors in Oral Interpretation and Intercollegiate debate.

Alpha Rho Tau

An interest in art is all that's required for membership to ART. Mostly composed of art majors, the club works together helping each other and sponsors art exhibits and guest speakers.

Western Players

The coliege drama club co-sponsors, with the Speech Department, the three major drama productions and has complete charge of the quarterly one-act plays.

Back row: D. Warford, M. Freeman, N. Johnson, D. Wilson. Front row: M. Peterson, J. Williams, S. Lilian, vice-president; O. Van Moorhem, president; Miss Peck.

CHRISTMAS is a time for making favors to place in the hospitals. Here Colhecon members Ellene Johnson, Donna Sullivan, Miss Detring, and Margaret Young look over the varities they have made.

Colhecon

"Would you prefer coffee or tea?" is a common phrase used by Colheconimists who keep busy serving at various teas and dinners. A picnic and a Senior tea are included in their list of activities.

Industrial Arts Club

Woodworking and art crafts of all types interest the men of this club. Through active participation in Industrial Arts, it offers opportunities for the furthering of knowledge in this field.

Science Club

A trip to the Hell's Gate project on the Fraser River was the highlight of the year. Under the advisorship of several science faculty members, the meetings were always of much interest to the many science-minded students.

Back row: Frances Honosowetz, Florence Palmer, Marilyn Carlson, Billie Baker, Jeanette Trullinger, Carol Zylstra, Gail Gentala. ## United Student Christian Foundation

Dinners, programs, and parties besides Universal Day of Prayer, WUS, and an Easter Sunrise Service, have been on the agenda for the busy United Student Christian Foundation this year.

Schussken Ski Club

Twice a month on Tuesday, the Schussken Ski Club members are entertained by informative speakers, and movies plus planning a used ski equipment sale, a ski race, and an outing. Purchasing ski emblems is a new project for the year.

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship

Christian fellowship is the goal of this active club on campus. Their activities include Bible studies, a Valentine Banquet, outings, and weekly meetings.

A NICKLE FOR BARBARA-Barbara Bos puts in her vote for Professor Snarf as Don Oliver, Sally Cays and Pete Hoeruegel watch wondering who will win this "coveted" title.

Sinclair Island and Ross Dam are the scenes of the annual outings for this very active club. Other activities include the WRA Carnival, a conference at WSC, a high school playday and an intramural swim meet.

"W" Club

Letter sweaters with a large or a small "W" on them signify the athletes of Western. This club also sponsors the "W" Club Smoker and various dances besides putting on a spring banquet.

Rheba D. Nickerson Club

A car wash was a money-making project sponsored by the Rheba D's this year. This energetic group also sent delegates to several conferences and a progressive dinner proved a lot of fun though dangerous on the diet.

BUSY, BUSY, BUSY are these gals setting up booths for the WRA Carnival. Well worth these efforts, the carnival was a big success.

SMALLER PLATES these days seems to be the problem here as Jo Resteigen, Merle Motoda, and Barbara Hose resort to other means of holding their straws and silverware.

Besides sending delegates to the International convention in Los Angeles this spring, A.C.E. put on a puppet show for youngsters in the Orthopedic ward at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Critics Club

Meeting at Dr. Van Aver's the first and third Tuesdays, Critics Club boasts student-led discussions on important writers of the world. A spring meeting is held at Lakewood each year.

Future Teachers of America

This year F.T.A. plays host to the winter district F.T.A. conference and also sponsors a mixer and a banquet. At a WAFTA conference during spring quarter, Allen Jung was elected vice-president of the organization.

Being unnecessary to give the prerequisite to belong to this organization, their long list of activities included a turkey dinner, an alumni coffee hour and a faculty wives' tea.

Der Deutsche Studentenverein

Only German is spoken at this campus organization. Many community people attend and are entertained with speakers, German newsreels and other activities.

Viking Camera Club

The tables seemed to have turned as the photographers pose for a picture themselves. Speakers and projects highlight these meetings all designed to further each member's skill in photography.

HARD AT WORK are Gerald Waterbury and Einer Thomsen, who are working on projects for Industrial Arts Club.

Ushers

Back row: S. Morrical, M. Owen, G. Ayers, D. Maki, M. Gordon. Front row: E. Jacobson, M. Noble, J. Berry, S. Graham, J. Haugen.

The ushers, a very necessary part of any program, play or concert, were always on hand to take tickets, give out programs and supply general information. Elsie Jacobson served as head usher.

Press Club

For all students interested in publications, Press Club's big event of the year was the Publications Banquet held at the close of the year. Various awards were given and the first Klipsuns were presented.

WHAT'S SO FUNNY? Wayne Ehlers doesn't get what Diane McPherson and Ken Robertson are laughing at during one of the lighter moments of publishing the weekly Collegian.

AWS Commission

Many activities kept AWS very busy this year. A coffee hour was given at the beginning of each quarter for the new students and assemblies, including a fashion show, were presented. Two tolos, one in the fall and the other in the spring, were big successes. In March, Marion Kemp and Amelia Bellotti were sent to Michigan for a national convention. Back

Norsemen Commission

The Norsemen's Ball, one in the fall, another during winter quarter, were the two major projects of the Norsemen, composed of all the men students on the campus. Serving on the commission and planning all the various Norsemen assemblies, besides cooperating with AWS during World University Week were, back row: L. Olson, P. Haag, J. Kreiss, vice-president. Front row: S. Price, treasurer; B. Elwood, president, and G. Phillips, secretary.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECTLou Ann Sauers finds it takes many hours and much practice before the organ can be played with ease. Here Mr. Schaub is giving a little assistance.

BEGINNING OF THE REAL THING-Student teaching is looked forward to by all prospective teachers. Gail Smith and Barbara Holstrom work with third graders in the campus school.

Besides the activities,

there are still classes to attend...

HOME ECONOMICS-Whether you plan to teach it or put it to practical use there are courses which come in handy for any girl. Lorene Erickson pauses a moment while sewing on a project for one of her classes.

TYPING is a useful skill in teaching as well as in secretarial work. Shown is Barrie Brownell increasing her speed and accuracy in the Business Education Department.

HIS LIFE IN HIS HANDS-Bruce Fuller is very careful as he makes his measurements while experimenting in the chemistry lab.

BUT I'M NOT ARTISTIC-This course in Industrial Arts is designed for elementary teachers in learning arts and crafts the grade school child can do, so doesn't require any special skill. Jan Maddox and Sigrid Vopnford work on clay bowls and seemingly are enjoying it.

SPRING

Athlete of the Year

Bruce Randall, who first received the outstanding athlete award in his freshman year, proved he had continued his high standards and performances in sports when he once again proudly accepted the award for 1957.
During his freshman year, Bruce took all-conference honors in football, basketball and baseball. A football injury hampered his services the following year, but last fall he took second-team allconference as a quarterback and honorable mention in basketball. He was pitcher and co-captain of the Viking baseball team.
Bruce, a senior, hails from Sequim, Washington, and will return there next year as head football and baseball coach, and assistant basketball coach.

Spring Sports Informal

In an atmosphere of the "Gay Nineties," the SSI was officially held in the Holiday Ballroom on May 3. Cardboard caricatures of typical figures of that era and brightly colored flowers well depicted the theme and season. Highlight of the evening was the presentation of the Athlete of the Year award. Chairman of the dance was Amelia Bellotti, under the sponsorship of Helmsmen.

STRAINING HARD and ready to throw the shot put is Jack Neer, active on Western's track team.

Sports

Newcomers and returning servicemen filled out the Viking baseball lineup for the 1957 season. Eight lettermen returned from the previous year's team that had lost the Division playoff game by only one run.

Coach Jack Hubbard had several "non-lettering veterans" to strengthen his quest for a conference title. Western split the season lid-tilter with UBC, $6-1$ and $3-4$, on the Canadian field. Their next trip, this time to Seattle Pacific, also produced a split, 9-3 and 8-9. Western opened at home just before press time with a double win over St. Martin's, 1-0 and 2-0. Topper LaCroix set down the Rangers with a one-hitter.

Pitching seemed the biggest problem Hubbard's charges would have to overcome. But preconference performances of LaCroix, Bob Eacrett, and outfielder-pitcher Bruce Randall, who had a 2-0 record to date, were very encouraging.
With the eight lettermen and fast-improving newcomers to provide a strong bench, Western was expected to be a strong contender for the conference leadership.

BATTER-UP TIME began again for letter-winner Gary Kohlwes who handled Viking pitchers for his final collegiate year during 1957.

VETERANS Gary Kohlwes and Bruce Randall gave good leadership to the Vik baseballers after being selected co-captains for the year.

THIS WAS YEAR NO. 2 for Coach Jack Hubbard as head baseball man. He debuted in college baseball coaching here last year. A great competitor himself, Hubbard is known for providing a hustling team.

GETTING A FEW WORDS of advice from the coach are the infielders, standing, David Morgan, Jim Gard, Melvin Bowden, Gerald Reimer, Doyle Winter. Doing the demonstration are Robert Allen and Gary Kohlwes.

REACHING for a fly are outfielders Oliver Riekkola, Neil Clough, Bruce Randall and Richard Santini.

SQUAD MEMBERS get a few words of wisdom from the coach before taking the field during a practice session. Good balance was provided in the Viking attack by outstanding infield work.

Tennis

After not placing last year, Coach Charles Lappenbusch's net forces moved into contention this spring with the addition of transfers and newcomers to the tennis squad. The Vikings were beaten in the first two outings by Seattle Pacific but were without Ken Erickson and a couple other top candidates who were ineligible through transferring until May 1. Things were expected to pick up when the netmen went against Evergreen competition. Weather held up the early practices to put the squad behind in conditioning.

WESTERN depended on the racquet of Tom Erickson, transfer student, for a conference showing this spring. The sophomore became eligible just in time for the conference meet.

Track-Western Style

Coach Ray Ciszek's track team had a big job ahead of them during the spring in trying to duplicate their second place finish of the previous year. Loss of several key men, including Ted Whan, conference 440 record holder; and Jim Hall, Western's top pole vaulter last spring, hurt Western chances greatly.
Early performances of veterans Dave Langley in the hurdles, Dick Kolkana and Gary Phillips in the sprints, Bob Swalwell and Claude Wilson in the field events, plus new candidates Pete Napper, Bernard Ivy, and John Cosco lifted Viking chances. Distance events and lack of squad depth were expected to give the tracksters the most trouble.

WESTERN'S top hurdler this spring was veteran Dave Langley. His performances put many first place points on the score-sheet for the Vikings.

UP AND OVER goes Western field man Dave Mosher during the opening triangular meet on the Viking oval.

JOHN NEER strains hard to heave the discus during practice. John and Bob Swalwell were two of the top fieldmen in the discus.

Spring Intramurals

Highlight of the spring intramural program was an international meet against UBC intramural champions. The result was a 2-3 record, with Western taking basketball and badminton doubles while losing volleyball, football, and badminton singles.
Softball went in full swing during spring quarter. Two leagues were formed, with seven teams performing in each league. Various houses and organizations participated in the spring activity. Hitting went way up as the sluggers kept the chuckers busy all spring.

HE'S SAFE! Chuck Bremmer slides in at home as the unidentified catcher attempts to tag him. Next at bat is Dick Reed.

CHAMPIONS-Victorious basketball team at the intramural meet were Don Weisel, Larry Jones, Bill Key, Bill Muskett, Larry Meyer, Ernest Woodfield, Mike Clark and Jim Baker.

VOLLEYBALL-One of the events in which the Viks didn't fare too well. Both teams are seen here doing their most to win.

A ROUGH TIME was had by the Westerners in football, losing the game to UBC, 20-0. As can be seen here, they didn't lose without a fight.

BETTER LUCK next time. Jo Hilliker pulls her arrow from the target as Gail Tuininga and Nancy Wheeler stand by hoping to do better.

STRIKE! Virginia Gilson strikes hard and Betty Olson prepares to catch the next one. Jo Hilliker is the "ump." (Looks like a good turnout from MRH.)

Women's Sports

A fall outing to Ross Dam began the recreational activities sponsored by Women's Recreational Association this year. A trip to WSC for a hockey conference proved successful as Western won over two teams. During winter quarter a basketball team was sent to a conference at UW where the group played teams from several other schools, winning all their games.
Sixteen high schools participated in Sports Day sponsored by the club during the spring, and Barbara Arnot was sent to a conference in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Other activities throughout the year were softball, tennis, bowling, ping pong, and badminton.

POSITIONS, GIRLS-Hisa Hayashida, Faye Miller, Midge Loser, Louella Vaughn line up for a strictly posed shot before going out to golf.

HOPING TO SEND that ball straight for the "strike spot" is Jo Hilliker. Gail Tuininga gets ready to try her luck and Midge Loser is keeping score.

Modern Dance Club

Displaying grace and design the Modern Dance Club presented their modern interpretations of the dance in many programs during the year. They assisted the music department in their Christmas concert as well as participating in the assembly for WUS. At the Dance Symposium held at WSC, Western had the largest group in attendance.

Blue Barnacles

Western's mermaids again put in a very active year. An exchange workshop was held with the UW in which the girls exchanged stunt ideas and skills. A demonstration was given during the spring for Sports Day besides the annual swim show. This year's theme was "Caribbean Castaways," the story of shipwrecked sailors and their adventures.

TOPSY-TURVY goes one mermaid as the other treads water to stay afloat, deciding she doesn't want to stand on her head.

Beginning with center and going left are: A. Allen, J. Mattieligh, B. Schroer, K. Olson, J. Hilliker, C. Stubbs, J. Perry, E. Jones, president; P. Heckman, B. Nye, secretary; P. Giles, A. Richins, J. McIvor, L. Botting, M. Loser, clerk of the course; G. Podratz, K. Turner, N. Johnson, S. Ernst, R. Barge, vice-president; G. Hopkins.

Classes

Senior Class

The big year came at last for the Seniors, though when they looked back it seemed only yesterday they had arrived as "green" Freshmen. The year began with Homecoming festivities with Sharon Andreasen and Bill Elwood as cochairmen. Carolyn Brewer was their queen. The Annual Senior Banquet was held at the Country Club, with Miss Lucy Kangley as guest speaker.
Spring brings on a final rush of activities-baccalaureate, class day, and commencement. With this final ceremony the Seniors leave to return again as alumni.

BROAD SMILES appear on the faces of these Senior students as someone adds a bit of play to business. The Senior Planning Board has many arrangements and plans to be made-banquets, baccalaureate, commencement and various Senior activities. Those serving on the Board were: Carl Linde, Barbara Schroer, Ted Hagen, Al Gunderson, Suzie Jacobsen, Rosemarie Oldow, Nadine Schilling, Lynda Samuelson, Joel Carlson, Gene Langill, Lucille Schell, Jim Kreiss, and Bill Elwood.

Who's Who

Twenty-eight students were chosen this year to represent Western in "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities," which contains biographies of outstanding American students. Students are chosen on basis of scholarship, leadership and participation in extra-curricular and academic activities, service to the school and promise of future furthering of business and society.

Junior Class

Finally upperclassmen, the busy Junior class sometimes wondered if they would ever make it. Once there, however, they had many activities to keep them moving. "One Thousand and One Nights" was the Arabian theme of the Junior Prom held Winter quarter. Working towards its success was Walt Kauzlarich, president; Kitty Stole, secretarytreasurer; and Tom Romerdahl, vice-president. Other activities of this busy class were a Homecoming display, a record raffle for the WUS drive and a successful mixer during Spring Quarter.

Freshman Class

The largest class on campus, besides being the newest, the Frosh had good reason for their enthusiasm and energy. Under the leadership of Chris Vall-Spinosa, vice-president; Judy Schurr, secretary, and Don Oliver, president, they began their yearly activities by planning the Homecoming Bonfire, presenting a "deep sea" window display, and entering a float in the parade. The Frosh aided the WUS drive by sponsoring a "Mile of Pennies" down the main hall in Old Main thus making their first profit. To end the year the Freshman Class Dance was held in Spring Quarter.

POPULAR NEW ADDITION to Western was the College Dance Band. Besides performing at the college functions, the band played at the Holiday on numerous occasions.

SIDE BY SIDE are Marion Kemp, art editor, and Molly McKee, copy editor, both very busy trying to meet the deadlines.

DEADLINE TUESDAY! There always seemed to be one right ahead of the staff members who worked so hard trying to meet them. They are (standing) Mary Chin, Marilyn Thatcher, Yvonne Clark, Grace Meikle; (seated) Molly McKee, Elta Podratz, Marion Kemp, Trula Wright and Alice Chin.

Klipsun

What goes into making a good yearbook? Members of the staff now look back on the many hours spent in Room 128 and see that all the time spent burning the lights in the evening, arguing with the editors, and harassing the photographers has at last paid off.
Calling the printer, locating a photographer for a last minute picture, making appointments were just a small part of the job Editor Phyllis Hirni had to do. Associate Editor Fran Brunie looks back with much relief mixed with nostalgia now that her job has been completed, remembering consultations with printers, financial reports, and as a final job, distributing the book.
Aside from the serious aspect of the work, the staff remembers the lighter side, too, the bull sessions which were as much a part of being on the Klipsun as the actual work was.
Members will agree that they certainly are glad to be done with the book but feel that part of themselves has been left in Room 128.

RELAXING A MOMENT in the sunshine are Editor Phyllis Hirni and Associate Editor Frances Brunie, who found that the job of editing an annual was that of many jobs rolled into one.

A NECESSARY PERSON on the Klipsun staff was James Bliss who did a very efficient job of advising.

TALKING OVER layout problems are section editors Trula Wright, Marilyn Thatcher and Yvonne Clark.

1956 Spring

and Summer

Supplement

WHO IS THE REAL ONE? Which messenger is really Sebastian poses quite a problem when both he and Viola appear at the same time. The whole cast looks on perplexed as the twins begin to ask each other questions.

Twelfth Night

Two elements, love and comedy, are supplied by the characters of this Shakesperian play. When Viola (Kathy Garrett), disguised as a messenger, becomes the recipient of Countess Olivia's (Bette Reed) affections, her twin brother appears unexpectedly to take over. The Duke Orsino (Al Gunderson), upon discovering his messenger boy is a young woman, decides Viola will make a better wife than servant. For comedy, Malvolio (Don Stribling), the Countess' nasty steward, manages to turn several servants against him. They in turn manage to make life nothing but trouble for him.
Others in the case were: Sir Toby Belch, Robert Dunlap; Andrew Aquecheek, Chuck Dennis; Maria, Sharon Andreasen; Feste, Allan Mathieson; Fabian, Bill Elwood; and Sea Captain, Bob Hansen.

Class Day . . .

With the traditional Class Day, the Seniors celebrated the grand climax. At the assembly Karen Roberts received the Freshmen Cup for scholarship, topping her class with a 4.0 average.
Graduates and faculty, in cap and gown, appeared in front of Old Main where Chuck Dennis read "An Old Man's Thoughts of School," and the group sang Auld Lang Syne. As a last reminder of the ' 56 class, the Seniors left behind their name cards under a stone on Memory Walk.

Then Graduation

Putting on the final touches to four years of college are 274 graduates who strolled down Memory Walk on the last few steps of their long journey. Receiving their Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Arts in Education the graduates bid a fond farewell to Western's campus and its faculty.
The commencement address was given by Harold S. Shefelman, prominent Seattle lawyer and member of the Washington State Board of Education.

PLACING NAME CARDS in Memory Walk is done by the graduating Seniors while (above) Seniors relax in front of Old Main before starting their procession to the auditorium.

Summer Term-Sunshine, picnics, hikes and-classes

Lazy summer days of warm sunshine and soft breezes promote more than the routine quarter activities for the college summer-schooler. The recreation schedule was overflowing with cruises to the San Juan Islands, hikes, a trip to Heather Meadows and the annual salmon barbecue.
On campus many new ideas and accomplishments were introduced. The latest men's dorm was christened Highland Hall and made ready for the "size 12 's" that would soon occupy the hall come September. For the first time due to a faculty action, an Honor Roll was made public. The teachers coming back for the summer session were treated to a display of free and inexpensive teaching aids. Pianists and a tenor from the San Francisco Opera Company fulfilled the Artists and Lecturers series expectations.
Work as well as play was accomplished as 182 degrees were issued at the end of the quarter.

the water touched with golden tongues of flame ... still and serene. The cry of a lone gull and the beat of waves on rocks below... sea and sand and low-voiced conversation. The water swallows a ripe sun . . . pink and gold and gray fade . . . silence . .

Acknowledgements

At long last the book is done and with it go many memories and much gratitude and thanks to all those who helped make it possible . . .
. . . to Associate Editor Fran Brunie who spent so many hours on the phone and in distributing the finished book . .
. . . to Chuck Berets, Floyd Jonak, Allen Hart, dependable photographers for the time spent and "guff" taken while shooting clubs, sports, houses, and other routine pictures . . .
. . . to Chuck Stutz, the photographer who filled in and worked so long overtime towards the last to meet the deadline . . .
. . . to art editor Marion Kemp who created all the artwork and color effects . . .
. . . to Yvonne Clark, my Spring section editor and selected staff member of the year . . .
. . . to my other section editors, Marilyn Thatcher and Trula Wright, with pencil and identification sheets in hand for all house and club pictures...
. . . to Grace Meikle faculty editor-when given a job needed no further instruction . . .
. . . to copy editor Molly McKee and her helper Elta Podratz trying to think of new ideas for copy . . .
. . . to Marcia Drake who wrote the copy for the opening section . . .
. . . to James Bliss, faculty adviser . . .
. . . to Craftsman Press and Jim Abbott who printed this annual and cover . . .
. . . to Jukes Studio and Russ Clift . . .
. . . to Mary and Alice Chin, staff members who willingly typed most of the index . . .
. . . And finally, to the students of Western for their cooperation and into whose lives this book enters.
