

Boyd Swanson Returns Here As Guest Artist

Boyd Swanson, prominent Seattle baritone, and former Bellingham resident, will be presented on the students' Artist and Lecture series at Western Washington college on Tuesday morning, January 9.

Swanson is a former student of WWC and received part of his musical training while attending the college. In 1940, he was one of the winners of the Bellingham Woman's Music club Scholarship contest.

Since his release from active duty in the Corps of Engineers during the war, Swanson has been living in Seattle where he has been studying singing with Helen Crowe Snelling. During the past four years he has been heard in opera and oratorio roles in Seattle, as well as in concert engagements throughout the northwest.

In the past year he has been heard in the roles of Figaro in Mozart's opero "The Marriage of Figaro" and as Plunkett in Von Flotow's "Martha," for the Proscenium Opera Company, and as Joseph in the Seattle Philharmonic and Choral Society's recent presentation of the oratorio, "The Childhood of Christ" by Berlioz.

Swanson recently signed a contract with the Seattle Park Board to appear in the summer opera productions. He is a staff announcer at radio station KOL in Seattle, and is a regular soloist at St. James Cathedral.

Ed Certificates Presented to WWC Students

Western Washington college granted degrees or certificates to 17 students at the end of fall quarter, 1950.

The degree of bachelor of arts in education was received by: Alfred C. Adams, John S. Doyle, and Harry E. Kayser, Bellingham; Evelyn H. Torpe, Everett; Robert A. Wilcox, Mount Vernon; Beverly J. M. Morgan, Portland; and Clifford G. McCullem, Port Townsend. Kenneth J. Bettner, Bellingham, and Robert H. J. King, Bow, received the degree of bachelor of arts.

Eight students who already hold degrees were granted secondary or elementary teaching certificates. They are: Vaughan L. Weber, Anacortes; Frank W. Adams, Bellingham; Evelyn M. Larson, Ferndale; Leslie Smith, Longview; Harvey M. Thornton, Omak; Alta H. Johnson and Thea O. Lybeck, Seattle; and Mary P. Stradley, Snohomish.

The total number of students enrolled for fall quarter in teacher education was 1002, with 175 doing supervised teaching in the Campus school and Bellingham city schools.

Enrollment Declines Only Slightly

Enrollment for winter quarter, expected to decline sharply in comparison to the fall quarter figure, has been higher than anticipated.

Almost 1300 students registered Tuesday and the final figure is expected to be at least 1350.

A total of 1453 students were enrolled fall quarter.

Two WWC Teachers Leave; One Returns

Only changes in the winter quarter faculty involve one instructor returned from special studies, one who has been called into active service with the navy, and one who is taking leave to do advanced studies. Four other members of the regular faculty are on leave for the entire year to engage in advanced studies.

John Liedtke, science department, received his orders from the Navy department, and will be on an indefinite leave of absence starting January 11. He will be on the staff of the commander of the amphibious force of the Pacific fleet as an electronic specialist.

On leave for this quarter is Miss Dorothy Ramsland, Home Economics department, who will be studying at Michigan State college.

PECK RETURNS FROM DETROIT

Returning from her quarter's study at Cranbrook Academy of Art in Detroit is Miss Miriam Peck, Art department, who studied under Marianne Strengell, noted designer and teacher of international and national reputation.

She included in her study experimental work with many kinds of fibers in designs suitable for hand looms, the fly-shuttle, and the power loom. She also designed her own woven pieces and did some experimenting with the dyeing of synthetic and natural fibers for textiles.

Miss Peck visited some of the art galleries in New York while she was in the east, including in her observations the Museum of Modern Art, Frick's, and the modern furniture show rooms of Knoll's and Pascoe's, Dan Cooper's Fabulous Textiles, and the annual exhibition of home furnishings at Grand Central Palace.

FOUR OUT FOR YEAR

Those on leave for the year are Miss June McLeod, education department, studying at New York university; Declan Barron, science department, studying at Stanford university; Donald P. Irish, sociology, doing graduate work at the University of Washington; and Fred Knapman, science department, studying at Columbia university.

'As You Like It,' By Shakespeare, Coming Attraction

Shakespearean comedy at its best will be brought to the college Sunday cinema this week by the ASB in a presentation of "As You Like It," starring Laurence Olivier.

There has been no advance in price, and the movie will be shown at the regular rate of 25 cents per person. Two screenings are scheduled for this Sunday evening, at six and at eight.

Korean War Claims 2 Grads; Former Editor Missing in Action

War in Korea reached a little closer to Bellingham and Western Washington college over the holidays when two WWC graduates were announced as killed or missing in action.

Capt. Parker H. Pratt, a member of the 24th infantry division, was reported as killed in action on the same day that announcement was made that Capt. Eric C. Phillips was missing in action.

Phillips, editor of the WWColegian in 1941-42, was a regular army officer and was fighting with a field artillery battalion of the second infantry division. He entered the army in 1942, served with the military government in Bavaria, was an army instructor at Fort Riley, Kansas, and was stationed at Fort Lewis when the second division was ordered overseas.

In his college days Phillips was president of the Washington Intercollegiate Press association, starred with Declan Barron in the production, "George Washington Slept Here," and presented a broadcast entitled "A College Editor Views the News" on the college weekly newspaper.

Hope that Phillips will return is justified by precedent. Mrs. Ruth Burnet, publications adviser, recalls that another Collegian editor, Alfie Biggs, was reported missing over

ERIC C. PHILLIPS

Austria but returned through the underground.

Phillips wife, the former Marge Schilke, is living at Fort Lewis with their two small sons.

Funds Voted for New Lounge At Final Fall Meeting; Carrick, Wing, Kloes Through

As the completion date of the new Music-Auditorium building grows near, the student facilities committee is racing to arrange for all furnishing and decorating of the student lounge and fountain. At its last meeting of the fall quarter the Board of Control set aside $7500 of the general fund for this purpose at the request of Freddie Haight, chairman of the student facilities committee.

ASB President Ed Hickenbottom read a letter from Coach C. F. Lappenbusch concerning changes in letter awards for transfer students. After a lengthy discussion the board passed the following amendment to the constitution: "Second year awards will be a pullover sweater, or a coat style sweater, or if it is the recipient's last year of eligibility, a jacket."

At the recommendation of President Hickenbottom, the board appointed Carol Irwin to fill the secretary's job for winter quarter in the absence of Anne Griffith.

Payment of the $50 damage done to the Lincoln bowl in Tacoma by WWC students at the PLC game was authorized by the board with recommendation that payment be handled through the student body of Pacific Lutheran college.

Nancy Winningham, elected yell leader fall quarter, was granted permission to keep her emblem but was instructed to return her yell sweater when she left school at the end of the quarter.

This meeting marked the final appearance of June Carrick, Charmaine Wing, and Hal Kloes who had completed their terms on the board.

'Harvey' Trials Thursday

"Harvey," the famous comedy by Mary Chase that won the Pulitzer prize in 1945 as the best play of the season representing the American scene, will be the winter quarter production of the division of drama.

Director Victor Hoppe announces that tryouts for "Harvey" will be held Thursday afternoon, January 11, from 3:00 to 5:00 p. m. in room 308. They will be on the conference basis, with no memory work necessary. Those in the cast may receive college credit in Speech 201, Acted Drama.

The play will be presented in the Campus school auditorium at the end of February and during the first week in March. College dates are March 1-3. There will be two sponsored public performances preceding the college showing.

The show is about an amiable lush by the name of Elwood Dowd who has as his best friend a six foot imaginary rabbit, Harvey. There are six men and six women in the cast, affording a good variety of acting parts, according to Hoppe.

Copies of "Harvey" are on reserve at the charging desk in the library and the play may be obtained for reading by those interested in trying out for the cast.

Board Adopts New Letter Award Policy

At the first meeting of the Board of Control for winter quarter, the three new members, Beverly Dustin, Phil Ager, and Charles O'Dell, were welcomed by President Ed Hickenbottom.

Football coach C. F. Lappenbusch presented the problem of award rules. After a very long and warmly debated discussion the board voted on a proposal for establishing new award rules thus nullifying the amendment passed at the last meeting.

1. First awards shall be a pull over sweater with one stripe.
2. Second awards shall be a jacket.
3. Third awards shall be either a coat sweater with three stripes or if it is the recipient's last year of eligibility, a blanket upon graduation.
4. Fourth awards shall be a blanket.

These rules are effective as of the beginning of fall quarter 1950, however, third award winners of 1950-51 only have the option of receiving a jacket. The board decided there will be no switching or changing of awards.

The only other action by the board granted the use of the lounge to the Education forum on Monday evening.

Miracle of the Year; How Long Will Our Luck Hold Out?

Nomination for the biggest miracle of 1950 was brought to our attention this week. The miracle: "456 traffic fatalities in the state of Washington, but not one on High street."

The luck that has been with us so far may not hold out forever. Any day now the combination of heavy traffic, snow, ice, careless driving, and on-street parking may combine to create a tragedy on the narrow lane—a grim reminder of official neglect.

Construction of a new approach has been delayed by both the city and the state for lack of funds. After all, a human life or two is just not worth any considerable expenditure these days.

In the 1949 legislature Vaughan Brown, Violet Boede, and Homer Nunamaker introduced a bill providing for a new approach to the college. The legislature had a hard time deciding which committee was to have the privilege of killing the bill, but it finally received the thumbs-down tag.

The Bellingham city council was no longer able to ignore the issue last year after being presented with a petition signed by 700 students and faculty members. The petition was referred to the City Traffic commission, which body recommended a system of one-way traffic as a means of reducing the risk to life and limb. The council's "solution" was to turn down the proposal and pass the buck to the state legislature again—at a time when the legislature would not convene for nearly a year.

One-way traffic, however, seems at the present time the most sensible and easiest solution to the problem—also the least expensive. It would at least eliminate the danger of head-on collisions, as north and southbound vehicles attempt to swerve past the pits in the road and the cars parked along the street.

Many drivers believe that High street should be one-way southbound (uphill) and Garden Terrace, one-way downhill.

We can't trust to luck in fifty-one. One-way traffic put into effect today may save someone's life tomorrow.

Fireside Chat

By EDDIE HICKENBOTTOM
President, Associated Students

I would like first of all this week to extend a formal welcome to the new board members who started their term of office this quarter. These include

Bev Dustin, Digger O'Dell, Phil Agar, and Carol A. Irwin. It is indeed a pleasure to have these people on the board and I am sure that they will work hard and make their decisions coincide with the wishes of the student body in general.

I would like also this week to mention a few words about those people who have completed their terms of office on the board. These include June Carrick, Harold Kloes and Charmaine Wing. Charmaine came in as a one-quarter replacement this last quarter and didn't have too much of an opportunity to do the things for which she is capable, but I am sure she made many wise decisions.

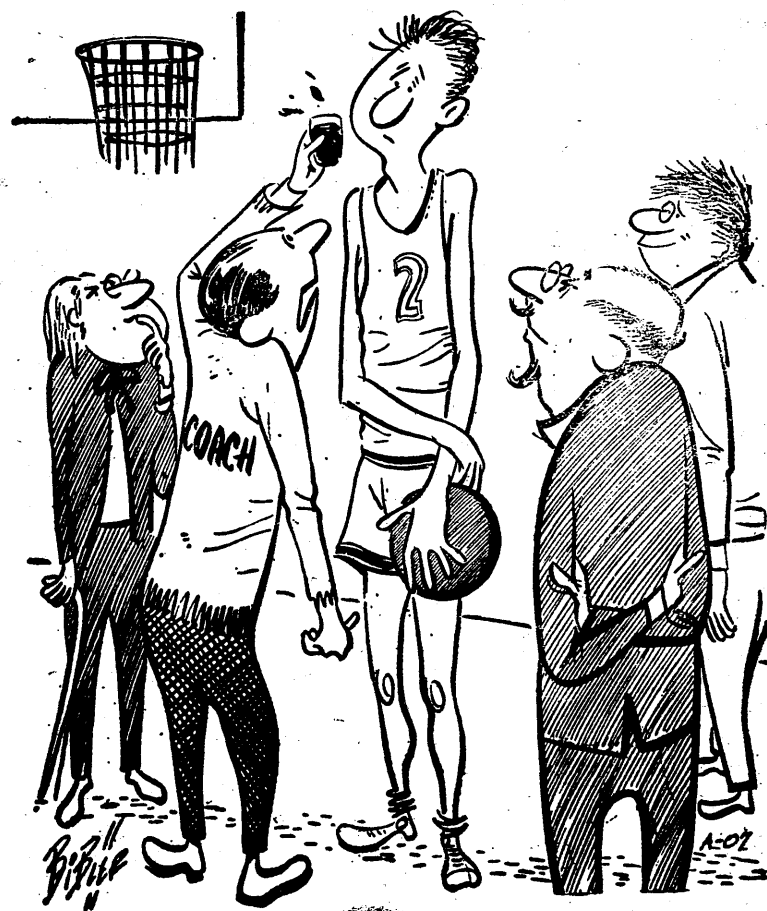

Harold Kloes was quite busy with football this fall but still managed to come to most of our meetings. I think the most significant piece of work accomplished by Hal, while on the board, was the building of the sign at Lakewood. He was capably helped by Ed Nelson. For those of you who have not seen it, I suggest you drive out to Lakewood sometime. It is indeed a very professional job.

June seems to be the workhorse of Bill Jones' administration and very capably carried on this last fall quarter. She worked very hard at whatever task was given her. When a volunteer committee was formed June was invariably the first to raise her hand.

It has been a great pleasure to work with these people and I am sure the other board members will agree with me 100 per cent. Wise and adequate student government is operated and maintained by electing these types of persons. The student body did well for themselves on these choices.

Five Delegates Attend Reed Ed Conference

Five people from Western Washington college attended a two-day meeting of the Pacific Northwest Conference on Higher Education at Reed college in Portland over the holiday period.

The delegates, headed by President W. W. Haggard, met with representatives of 35 higher institutions to discuss current trends and future problems. Other members of the WWC delegation included Miss Ruth Platt, Miss Hazel Plympton, E. J. Arntzen, and George Dowd, student delegate.

The opinion was expressed at the conference that teacher education institutions will occupy a crucial position in the times ahead. The shortage of elementary teachers is expected to become more critical with advanced mobilization and preparedness.

Those attending the conference discussed the problem of providing for school children in the case of war.

A REPORTER'S RESOLUTIONS

With the British government resolving to ban the sale of tea strainers in the commonwealth, I resolve to improve my spelling that I might at least pass bonehead English.

And with the increase in American income tax for 1950-51, I also resolve to quit earning money so I won't have to contribute to the government's evil habit of hoarding greenbacks.

In the advent of socialized medicine for frogs, I resolve to discontinue my subscription to the African Nature magazine.

In addition, because my mother-in-law will be moving out, I resolve to speak to my wife's relatives again—providing they stay at least 6000 miles away.

Few Changes in Winter Quarter Staff

Beginning of the winter quarter and the new year finds few changes in the staff of the WWColegian. One ace sports writer, Bob Sabin, has been lost to the United States navy, but so far no other men have been called into duty.

Paul Gillie, Eugene Williams, Keith Stearns, Mort Gronseth, and Jean Olson continue in their positions of editor, business manager, managing editor, sports editor, and society editor. Leo Delano will continue as the wit of the staff.

Returning to preside over the

WWC Students Recently Wed

Early in the Christmas holidays, Miss Barbara Ann Burnett, WWC sophomore, became the wife of Mr. H. Bernard Mathes, a senior in teacher education.

The December 20 double-ring ceremony took place in the Blaine Congregational church with the Rev. Evan David officiating.

Mrs. Mathes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Burnett of Blaine. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Richard Atkins and H. B. Mathes of Bellingham. His grandfather is Dr. E. T. Mathes, the first president of WWC.

Clothed in an ankle-length gown of white lace, the bride carried a bouquet of red rosebuds and stephanotis. Her only attendant was Miss Virginia Kagey, her Edens hall roommate. She wore a gown of dusty rose with a corsage matching the bridal bouquet.

Dick Green served as best man. Ushers were Walter Goetz, and Bruce Hoof, WWC senior and sophomore.

The couple are now at home on Lake Whatcom Boulevard while both are continuing their studies here.

Holiday Rites Unite Habegger-Fisher

A Christmas wedding highlighted the season for Miss Joanne Ruth Habegger and Harold Dodge Fisher, Jr., WWC seniors. The ceremony was performed by Dr. L. David Cowie in the University Presbyterian church of Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Habegger of Seattle are the parents of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dodge Fisher of Bellingham are the parents of the groom.

Miss Joan Bartlett, WWC junior, attended the bride who was dressed in an ivory satin gown, princess style. She carried a bouquet of rosebuds and stephanotis centered with a white orchid. Her bridesmaids, Miss Marilyn Savage; Miss Joanne Fisher, sister of the groom; and Mrs. Robert Habegger, sister-in-law of the bride; wore gowns of American Beauty faille taffeta. They carried pink holly wreaths decorated with American Beauty roses and Christmas balls.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Fisher have attended Washington State college. They are now in teacher education at WWC.

After a wedding trip through Oregon, the couple are now living on North Forest street.

ENGAGED — Engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruby Clarice Johnson, AWS president, to Gordon Earl Smith, 1950 grad, has been announced by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Larrabee of Bellingham. Smith is the son of Mrs. Tena Smith of Seattle.

Miss Johnson is a senior in teacher education and an active member of Off-campus women. She was a Homecoming princess for her class this year.

Smith is a former Norseman club president and "W" club member. No date has been set for the wedding.

Junior Couple Plan Spring Wedding

A spring wedding has been planned for Miss Joanne Sensenbrenner and Keith Wright, WWC juniors.

Miss Sensenbrenner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sensenbrenner of Vancouver, Washington. Mr. Wright is the son of Mrs. Bernice Wright of Bellingham.

Both are majoring in teacher education.

Mr. Wright is at present working on the junior prom as co-chairman with Helen Wilk.

FOOTBALL STUDENT TO WED FORMER WWC STUDENT

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Anderson of Seattle announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Joyce Anderson, to Robert J. Scoll. Mr. Scoll is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Scoll of Renton.

Miss Anderson is a former art major at WWC. Mr. Scoll is a senior majoring in physical education. Plans have been made for an early spring wedding.

Ski Instruction Classes Begin This Saturday

Kermit Bengtson, Ski club adviser, announced this week that ski classes will begin this Saturday at Mount Baker.

Two competent ski instructors have been hired to teach the classes. Harry Parsons, an instructor with the Seattle Mountaineers for the past two years, will be in charge. His assistant will be John Murray, who also taught college ski classes last year at Mount Baker.

Ski classes are expected to run throughout winter quarter with 12 two-hour classes being offered for $10. Anyone interested is invited to join the class whether experienced or beginner. The deadline for registering for this course is this Friday afternoon.

Students may receive P. E. credit for the lessons if they wish. Parsons will meet with the class at 4:00 p. m. Friday, at which time he will explain the course, check equipment and show a short movie.

Bengtson also announced that the college has acquired two more busses this year so there will be no trouble transporting students to the mountain and back. The bus trips are open to anyone whether enrolled in the class or not.

The busses will leave from in front of the P. E. building at 7:30 tomorrow morning, returning around 7:00 in the evening. Ski insurance is still available in the ski shop for $3.50.

Soph Class Presents 'The Thing' Tonight

Built around a theme of "The Thing," the sophomore class mixer tonight will feature a photographic guessing contest and carnival snap shots. The junior high gym, doors will open at 8:30 p. m. and dancing to Phil Agar's music will last until 11:30 p. m.

Entry blanks for the contest will be given out at the door. Participants will be asked to give each of 12 numbered photographs around the dance floor the name of the month which it depicts. The prize for the winning entry will be given at 11:00 p. m. at the dance.

Snapshots will be taken during the dance. They will feature the carnival body type with head inter-

PIATT-SUTTON ENGAGEMENT PLANS RECENTLY REVEALED

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Nichols of Omak, Washington, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helen Piatt, to John Frazier Sutton. Sutton is the son of Mr. W. C. Sutton of Colfax, Washington.

Miss Piatt is a senior in Home Economics and P. E., majoring in teacher education. Her fiance is also a senior and majoring in economics.

No definite date has been set for the wedding.

posed. Wallet-size snaps will sell at two for 75 cents while a four by five inch print will cost 50 cents.

Chairmen of the various committees for the mixer are Beverly Manely, decorations; Joan Cornell, publicity; Peggy Strauss, pictures; Aletha Springer, chaperones; and Bob Jacobs, music.

Vikings Travel for First Conference Test

Face Eastern's Five In Opener, Whits Pirates to Follow

Coach Bill MacDonald and men left for their first two tests of the 1951 Evergreen conference basketball race yesterday. They play Eastern in their league-opener Friday night, then travel to Spokane to meet the "skyscraping" Whitworth Pirates.

Friday night the blue and white will try to break one of the longest losing streaks in the Pacific Northwest. Vic's Viks have never won a basketball game from Eastern Washington college in Cheney.

GOOD PRE-SEASON RECORD

The boys who are going to try to break that record have one of the best pre-season records for a MacDonald coached Western squad. They have won seven games, while losing only three. Two of their losses were to the undefeated Seattle university squad and the other to the Vancouver Cloverleafs, the Canadian amateur champions.

Eastern Washington, the defending Evergreen league champions, also have an impressive pre-season record. Tops on the list for the Cheney squad is a 53 to 36 victory over Washington State college, defending Pacific Coast conference champions.

The starting line-ups for Friday's tilts will probably read:

Eastern	Western
Whitehall	Hansen
Straling	Russell
Eicher	Ravenhorst
Roffler	Peterson
Hallett	Stephan

WHITS HAVE SKYSCRAPERS

Saturday night the Western boys will travel to Spokane to meet the tallest team in Whitworth's history, according to publicity releases from the Spokane school. The 14-man squad averages six foot three in height and that includes two men under the 72-inch mark.

The tallest man on the squad is six foot seven and one-half inch Ralph Polson, a Riverside, California, junior college transfer student. Polson has averaged 19 points per game in their 13 pre-season contests.

Mural Hoop League Starts Slow; Some Tilts Re-scheduled

Winter quarter intramural basketball creaked to a slow start this week in the Western Washington college mural hoop league. Two "A" league games were played as scheduled while the "C" league put one game on ice and the "B" league played none of their games. The games not played were scored as forfeits, but will be placed on the schedule at later dates.

Closest game of the week was the So'wester - Normal Drive game Tuesday. The So'westers inched out the Normalites with a two-point victory and a 36 to 34 final score.

In the "A" league the Hawnyaks lost to Daniels A 32-24 while the Hookers fell before the Winos 38-25.

Second on the lanky squad is Ray Hanes, a six foot six and one-half inch lad. Hanes also came from Riverside junior college. These are two of the boys who lead the "new skyscraping" Pirates.

This year the crimson and black has a new leader in youthful Jim McGregor, a graduate of the University of Southern California. McGregor usually uses a slow, deliberate style of play, with the team only taking shots when they are pretty sure of a basket. This will be just the opposite of the Viks, as they have been using a fast, at times racehorse style of play.

The dozen Viks were: Jeff Russell, Bob Hansen, Hal Norgaard, John Crooks and Gayle Whitsell, forwards; Dick Ravenhorst and Bob Woodman, centers; Stan Peterson, Bud Scott, Larry Stephan, Jack Anderson, and Roy Richardson, guards.

All intramural bowling clubs will bowl at the regular time at Twentieth Century and Elks alleys at 4:00 p. m., January 9, 1951.

Fighting Saints Fall Twice Before High Scoring Viks

Western proved to be a poor host to the Carroll College Saints, as they swamped the Montanans twice, 64 to 43; and 83 to 44. Stan Peterson led the onslaught on Friday night, December 15, with a total of 18 points.

"Pete" was held to a single field goal in the first half, but broke out with 16 points in the final 20 minutes to lead the Viking scoring. Walt Romasko, 6 foot 3 inch center of the Saints, led the scoring for the game with 23 points.

Leading the Saturday scoring was Hal Norgaard, who scored 22 points, for the highest individual score of the season for the Viks. The 83 points for the team was also high mark for pre-season play. Peterson was second high scorer with 17 points, and Dick Ravenhorst had 16.

The two-game series brought the Viking record for the year to six victories and two defeats.

Viks End Hoop Tests With 7 Won, 3 Lost

With the loss to the Vancouver Cloverleafs and the win over UBC, Western's basketekers finished their pre-season play with a seven-won-three-lost record.

During the 10 games the Viks scored 633 points for a point average of 63.3 per game. They have held their opponents to a total of 553 points, or 55.3 points per game.

Leading the scoring for the blue and white is Stan Peterson, the Poulsbo bomber. Stan has a total of 158 points for an average of 15.8 per game. Next on the list is Dick Ravenhorst, the big center, with a total of 102, or 10.2 points per game. Although Dick is second in the scoring, he has not been high-point man for a single game this year. Peterson has copped the honor in seven games, Hal Norgaard in two, and Bud Scott in one.

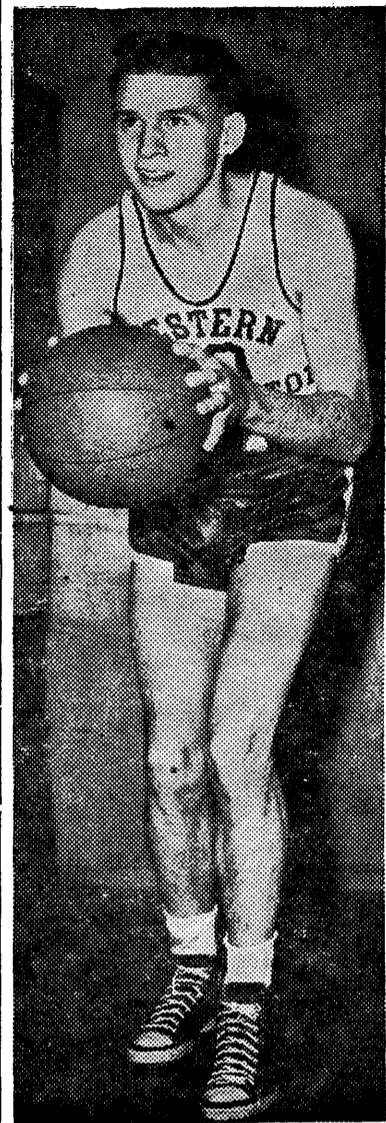

Norgaard has the highest single game total for the year, with the 22-point effort against the Carroll college Saints.

Norgaard, Bob Woodman, Bud Scott, and Bob Hansen round out the six top scorers. Norgaard has 68 points, Woodman 50, and Hansen and Scott have 47 each.

Vikings Draws Lutes In First Home Game

Here is the conference schedule for the Vikings. The first home game will be next Friday night, when the blue and whit meet the up and down Pacific Lutheran Gladiators.

- Friday, Jan. 5.....WWC at EWC
 - Sat., Jan. 6.....WWC at Whitworth
 - *Friday Jan 12.....PLC at WWC
 - *Saturday Jan. 13.....CWC at WWC
 - Friday, Jan. 19.....WWC at CPS
 - Sat., Jan 20.....WWC at St. Martin's
 - *Fri. Feb. 2.....St. Martin's at WWC
 - *Saturday, Feb. 3.....CPS at WWC
 - Thursday, Feb. 8.....WWC atCWC
 - Saturday, Feb. 10.....WWC at PLC
 - Friday, Feb. 16.....WWC at UBC
 - *Saturday, Feb. 17.....UBC at WWC
 - *Fri., Feb. 23.....Whitworth at WWC
 - *Saturday, Feb. 24.....EWC at WWC
- *Indicates home games.

"The Poulsbo Bombsight," Stan Peterson, ends his collegiate basketball career at Vikingville this year. Peterson, who led the Vikings in scoring last season with 321 points, is well on his way to high point honors this season. Peterson is rated as one of the best offensive and defensive guards in the Evergreen conference this season.

Viks Split With Canadians

The Vikings split their final two games of 1950, losing December 29 to the Vancouver Cloverleafs 55 to 53, then coming back the next night to down the University of British Columbia 56 to 41.

The score was close all the way Friday night, with the Cloverleafs getting the nod in the final minute of play. Stan Peterson again led the scorers with a total of 17 points. With his new tall lineup, Coach Bill MacDonald's chargers found a new scoring threat in Bob Hansen. The big boy (he and Stan Peterson are both from Poulsbo) scored 15 points against the 'Leafs, giving him second-high total on the blue and white squad.

Bob Pickel lead the Canadians with a total of 16 points.

Saturday night the Viks took an early lead on the UBC Thunderbirds and coasted to their final win of 1950. It was a rough game with seven men fouling out, four Viks and three 'Birds.

"Old Reliable" Stan Peterson again led the scoring, with a total of 14 points. Bob Hansen was second with 11 points. Southcott, the south-paw shooting star of the UBC club, led their scoring with 11 points.
